These education and examination regulations (EER-FPTR) enter into force on 1 September 2016.

The General Part (Part 1), the Programme-Specific Part (Part 2; separate documents for each programme) and the Transitional and Final Provisions (Part 3) make up separate elements of the 2016-2017 EER-FPTR.

The General Part applies to all students.

The Programme-Specific Part (Part 2) applies to all students of the specific programme.

The Transitional and Final Provisions apply to all students.

17-06-2016
PART III  TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Paragraph 16a.  Transitional provisions

Article 16a.1  Transitional provision with respect to distinctions
1.  Contrary to what is stated in article 5.16, the regulations on distinctions that applied on 1 September 2014 will remain applicable until 31 August 2017 for students who have been registered for the bachelor’s degree programmes described in the present EER without any interruptions since 1 September 2011 or earlier.
2.  Contrary to what is stated in article 5.16, the regulations on distinctions that applied on 1 September 2014 will remain applicable until 31 August 2017 for students who have been registered for the master’s degree programmes described in the present EER without any interruptions since 1 September 2011 or earlier.

Paragraph 17.  Final provisions

Article 17.1  Safety net scheme and hardship clause
1.  Cases that are not covered by these regulations or insufficiently covered by these regulations are decided by the dean.
2.  In individual cases of extreme unfairness, the board of examiners is entitled to make an exception to the provisions of these education and examination regulations, in favour of a student.

Article 17.2  Amendments
Amendments made to these regulations do not take effect in the current academic year, unless the interests of the students are not disproportionally compromised by those amendments.

Article 17.3  Publication
1.  The dean is responsible for suitable publication of these regulations, of the rules and guidelines that have been set by the board of examiners and of any amendments to the rules and regulations mentioned.
2.  All interested parties are entitled to collect their copies of the documents referred to in item 1 from the faculty office.

Article 17.4  Entry into force
1.  These regulations enter into effect on 1 September 2016.
2.  All previous education and examination regulations adopted for the degree programmes referred to cease to have effect from that date onwards.

Adopted by the dean on June 17, 2016.