

Irish Famine Summer School Online, Strokestown Park, May 29th 2021

Strokestown Park
House, Gardens &
National Famine Museum

IRISH HERITAGE TRUST
Bringing Places to Life

FAMINE SUMMER SCHOOL ONLINE, 29 MAY

Launch by Ambassador of Ireland to the United States of America, Daniel Mulhall.

Paula Stokes's "1845: Memento Mori" art installation

The Choctaw Gift of 1847

Landlords and Tenants: the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly

National Famine Way: Education and Outreach

Heritages of Hunger

Great Famine Voices Roadshow:

Teaching the Great Hunger in North America

www.strokestownpark.ie/famine/summer-school/

Government of Ireland
Emigrant Support Programme
An Bonna Ceilidh Faochta na n-Éireann
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

Quinnipiac
Ireland's Great
Hunger Institute

All sessions on Zoom: <https://www.strokestownpark.ie/famine/summer-school/>

12–12:30pm

Launch of the Famine Summer School, Great Famine Voices Roadshow, and Paula Stokes's "1845: Memento Mori" art installation exhibit commemorating the tragedy of the Great Hunger with 1845 glass potatoes by Ambassador of Ireland to the United States of America, Daniel Mulhall.
Chair: Dr Emma O'Toole (Irish Heritage Trust)

12:30-1:15pm

Reflections on the Choctaw Gift of Irish Famine Relief in 1847
Chair: Professor Christine Kinealy (Ireland's Great Hunger Institute, Quinnipiac University)

Michelle 'Chelle' S. McIntyre-Brewer (University of Nebraska- Omaha)
"American Indians and the Irish: The Ties that Bind".

Dr Pdraig Kirwan (Goldsmiths, University of London).
Famine Pots: The Choctaw-Irish Gift Exchange, 1847—Present

1:30-3pm

Keynote Address: Landlords and Tenants: The Good, the Bad, & the Ugly.
Chair: Caroilin Callery (National Famine Museum, Strokestown Park)

Professor Mark McGowan - University of Toronto, Canada
"Major Denis Mahon and the Migration of the 1,490 Famine Emigrants from the Strokestown Park Estate".

Respondents:

Dr Jacqueline Crowley – Castle Leslie, Heritage & Collections, Castle Leslie, Glaslough, Co Monaghan, "The Great Hunger and Castle Leslie".

Cathal Poirteir, "The changing relations between Lord George Hill and his tenants in Gweedore 1837-1878".

Irish Famine Summer School Online, Strokestown Park, May 29th 2021

3:20-4pm

National Famine Way: Education and Outreach

Chair: Professor Mark McGowan (University of Toronto)

Marita Conlon-McKenna (author of The Hungry Road, Under the Hawthorn Tree & Shoe Stories), Caroilin Callery (National Famine Museum, Strokestown Park & Irish Heritage Trust).

4.30 – 6pm

Heritages of Hunger: Societal Reflections on Past European Famines in Education, Commemoration and Musealisation

Chair: Professor Marguérite Corporaal (Chair in Irish Literature in Transnational Contexts; Principal Investigator, Dutch Research Council funded (NWO) Heritages of Hunger project, Radboud University).

Panelists: Professor Marguérite Corporaal (PI Heritages of Hunger, Radboud University), Dr Ingrid de Zwart (Wageningen University & Research), Dr Lindsay Janssen (Radboud University), Dr Gloria Román Ruiz (Radboud University/NIOD Amsterdam), Charley Boerman (Radboud University) and Anne van Mourik (NIOD Amsterdam).

7 – 8:30 pm

Great Famine Voices Roadshow: Teaching the Great Hunger and Irish Famine Migration in the United States and Canada

Chair: Dr Jason King (Irish Heritage Trust)

Panelists: Professor Maureen Murphy (Hofstra University, New York), Doris Meyer (American Irish Teachers Association), Professor Christine Kinealy (Ireland's Great Hunger Institute, Quinnipiac University), Professor Mark McGowan (University of Toronto).