Living Expenses* *Based on current expenses.	Estimated semester expenses for students:
	Housing (shared)	$3947
	Meals	$3431
	Books and Supplies	$650
	Student Insurance	$800
	Additional Living Expenses	$1000
	Total	$9828

Academic Expenses	Tuition fees are waived for students from partner institutions. Students may be charged specific course fees for some classes that need supplies such as design, communications, film, etc.
Health Insurance	Loyola University requires that all exchange students have health insurance. They will be charged an insurance fee and covered under a policy obtained by Loyola on their behalf, unless they submit proof of comparable personal coverage. A representative of their insurance company must complete a health insurance waiver form and the coverage must include all of the following benefits in order to be accepted. If it does not meet these requirements, then they must purchase the policy made available by the university. More information can be found at: https://cie.loyno.edu/international-students/current-students/health-insurance .
Visa	International exchange students are required to apply for a J-1 Exchange Visitor Visa. They can consult the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate in their home country to obtain details regarding requirements. Typically, students must submit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ A current passport valid for at least six months after proposed date of entry into the U.S.;</li> <li>◦ A valid SEVIS form DS-2019;</li> <li>◦ Evidence of financial support for the period of time and the amount indicated on the DS-2019 form;</li> <li>◦ An online visa application Form DS-160 (most consulates now use the online form, but students should check with the specific embassy or consulate at which they are applying). The visa forms are available on the State Department website (https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/study.html);</li> <li>◦ Proof of SEVIS fee payment (https://www.fmjfee.com/i901fee/);</li> <li>◦ One 2x2 photograph. See the required photo format explained on the State Department website (https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/visa-information-resources/photos.html)</li> </ul> The U.S. Embassy or Consulate in your home country will issue a visa for the length of the semester or year-long program. Exchange students can enter 30 days before the program start date (based on welcome date) and leave the U.S. 30 days after the program end date (based on the last date of exams). Please visit https://cie.loyno.edu/international-students/new-exchange-students/visa-process for more information.

Facilities	Students have access to the library, computer rooms, writing laboratories, health services, dining services, shuttle services, counseling center, recreational facilities, student groups (including International Buddies program) and campus programming.
Housing	Students live on-campus in one of four residence halls. Costs vary slightly depending on which hall students are in and whether they have a roommate (please note it is very difficult to get a single room). Students may not always get their first preference for housing, but they have a better chance if they turn in their housing contracts to us early. For more information about housing, students can visit the following website http://studentaffairs.loyno.edu/residential-life/residence-halls
Internships	Open to exchange students under certain conditions and with the permission of the Center for International Education. Visit https://cie.loyno.edu/international-students/current-students/employment-internships and http://success.loyno.edu/careers/job-internship-search for more information
Orientation	Through icebreakers, small group discussions, tours and lectures, the orientation helps new international students adjust to the university and New Orleans and provides a wonderful opportunity to meet other international students. The orientation includes a tour of campus, information on Loyola and New Orleans, adapting to the U.S., opportunities for getting involved at Loyola, and important immigration information.
Cultural Connections Program	Exchange students can join the Cultural Connections Program to meet locals and explore the city. Cultural Connections sponsors events throughout the year and gives students an opportunity to experience New Orleans, the region and culture. Examples of Cultural Connections events include Swamp Tours, Mardi Gras and St. Patrick's Day parades as well as planned group dinners and barbecues. For more information and to apply online, go to https://cie.loyno.edu/get-involved/cultural-connections .
