

Exchange Programs for International Students

Tokyo International University (TIU) was founded in 1965 and encompasses five undergraduate schools and four graduate schools. TIU is constantly expanding its practice-oriented international education. Roughly 1,300 international students from over 60 countries around the world are currently studying at TIU.

TIU offers two English-based programs for international exchange students interested in studying at TIU for one or two semesters.

Japan Studies Program (JSP) Semester-based Program

Non-degree semester-based program. JSP curriculum puts a stronger emphasis on learning Japanese language and Japan studies. In order to deepen your understanding of Japan, elective courses as well as several field trips, excursions and cultural activities are included.

[Program Core]

Japanese Language Courses and English-based electives on Japanese Culture, Literature, Politics, and Society. In addition, E-Track courses are also available. Students usually register 16 - 20 credits.

■ Elective Courses:

[Accommodation]

Homestay:

2022 Spring JPY300,000/ Fall JPY300,000 including meals (breakfast and dinner on weekdays, and breakfast, lunch and dinner on weekends) and liability insurance fee of around JPY3,000.

*The length of stay may slightly change if the TIU academic calendar is modified and the cost also may change accordingly..

[Activities / Events] ※Subject to change

- 2 to 3 Field Trips to experience Japanese culture
- Kansai Excursions (Additional fee is required)

[Advice on choosing a program]

If studying Japanese is your main purpose, the JSP program may be the best option for you. Taking the Japanese Language Courses (8 credits) is mandatory, however, you can still take other courses for more than 8 credits. Please be advised that since the Japanese Language Courses run four days a week for three hours, there will be limited courses available.

[Requirements for JSP & E-Track]

- English Proficiency: TOEFL iBT 79, IELTS 6.0, CEFR B2 or equivalent to the previously mentioned scores.
- GPA 2.5 or above

[Required Fee]

- Housing

English Track Program (E-Track) Regular Program
