

Do you feel like you only have time to get the required knowledge to pass the courses you follow? Or can you aim for a good grade or deepen your knowledge in the matter as well?

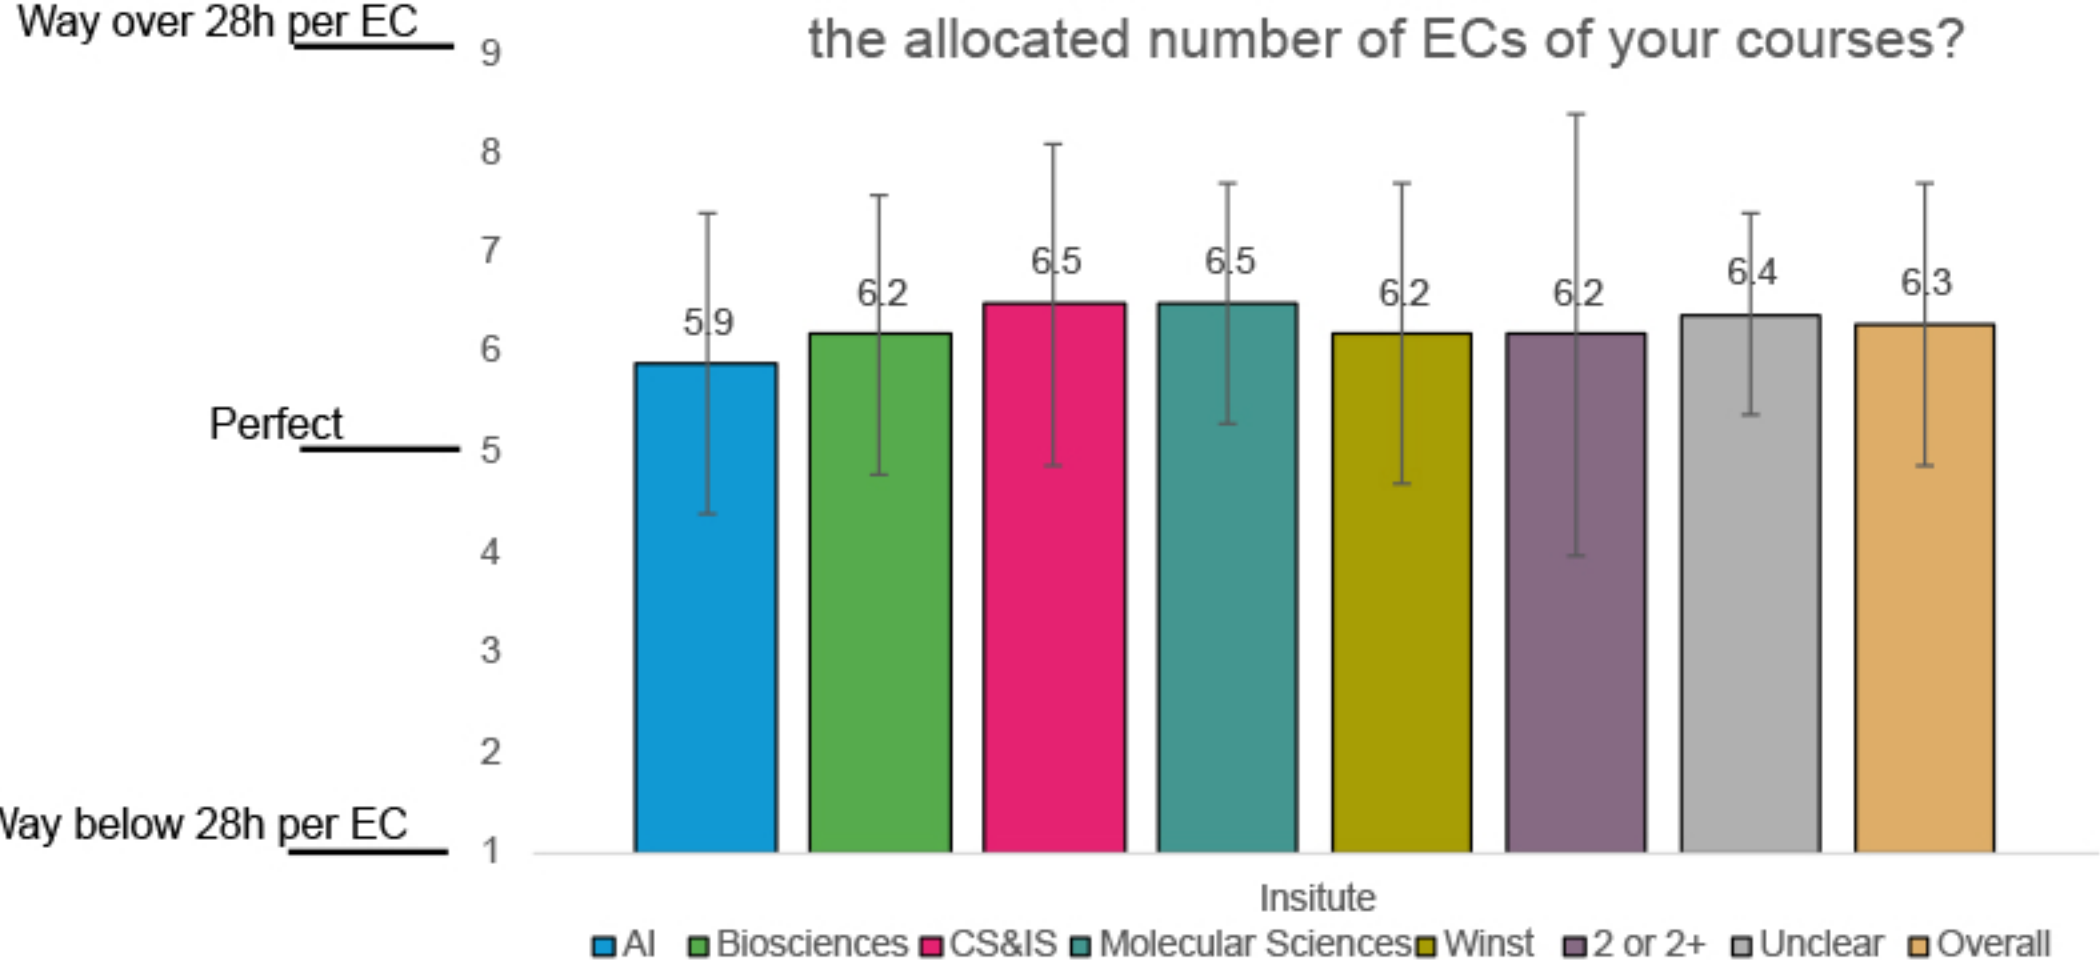

Comparison Ideal and Experienced Workload

1 = Extremely low, 10 = Extremely high

On average, how well does the studyload correspond to the allocated number of ECs of your courses?

Has the workload ever impacted your mental wellbeing?

Do you consider it feasible to graduate within the allocated time of your study programme?

