RULES AND REGULATIONS EXAMINATION BOARD ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE 2021-2022

COVID-19 guidelines

1. Following the outbreak of COVID-19 (the coronavirus), the Executive Board has established various guidelines as referred to in Article 7 of the Structural Regulations of Radboud University for the organisation and coordination of education and the examination of the degree programme. The guidelines can be found on the following websites:
<https://www.ru.nl/english/news-agenda/news/the-coronavirus-and-radboud-university/>
<https://www.radboudnet.nl/english/whowhatwhere/services-facilities/services/bjz/regulations/>
2. The provisions of these education and examination regulations apply without prejudice to the provisions of the guidelines referred to in article 1.

Article 1 Scope

The following is in regard to the regulations introduced by the Examination Board for the degree programmes in Artificial Intelligence to ensure a smooth procedure during the Bachelor's and Master's phases of the Artificial Intelligence programmes and during all examinations and related units of study.

Article 2 Definitions

Any terms used in the present regulations that are also contained in or arise from the Higher Education and Research Act (hereinafter, the Act) and the Radboud Structure Regulations will retain the meaning given to them in those regulations. Furthermore, the following terms will be understood to mean:

1. Education and Examination Regulations (hereinafter referred to as: EER): the education and examination regulations that apply to the Bachelor's and Master's programmes in Artificial Intelligence, introduced by the faculty dean, and.
2. Examination Board: the Examination Board of the Bachelor's and Master's programme in Artificial Intelligence.
3. Examiner: a person appointed by the Examination Board to administer examinations and determine the results.
4. Units of study: the courses listed in the EER that the student must follow and the related examinations that the student must complete successfully to obtain the Bachelor's or Master's degree.
5. Examination: an evaluation of the student's knowledge, understanding and skills concerning a specific unit of study and the assessment given for this evaluation by at least one of the examiners appointed by the Examination Board; the term 'examination' is understood to mean all test forms.
6. Student: a person enrolled for and preparing to complete a Bachelor's or Master's degree.
7. Graduation candidate: a person who has completed the requirements for the Bachelor's or Master's degree.
8. STIP: the faculty's Student Information Point.
9. OSIRIS: the university's student information system.
10. Brightspace: Brightspace: the university's digital learning environment.

Article 3 Composition

1. One joint Examination Board is established for the AI Bachelor's and related Master's programme.
2. The Examination Board consists of three or five members appointed on the basis of their expertise of the study programme or group of programmes concerned. At least one of the members must be a lecturer of the programme or group of programmes concerned; at least one member is not part of the degree programme's staff.
3. One of the student advisors acts as an advisor to the Examination Board.
4. The Programme Coordinator acts as (an advisory) member to the Examination Board.
5. After consulting with the director of the relevant education institute and hearing the other members of the board, the dean will appoint the members and the chair for a period of four years.

Article 4 Day-to-day affairs

1. The Examination Board will appoint a vice chair who will replace the chair when the chair is absent.
2. The Dean will appoint a secretary who is responsible for preparing meetings and implementing decisions, among other things.
3. The chair and the secretary are responsible for handling day-to-day affairs.
4. The Examination Board authorizes the chair and the secretary to sign certain documents, either jointly or separately, on behalf of the Examination Board.
5. The Examination Board may introduce standing orders that provide for the working procedure in further detail. Decisions will be made by majority vote and will preferably be unanimous.

Article 5 Procedure for examinations

5.1 Administering examinations

- a. The Examination Board yearly appoints an examiner for administering examinations and determining the results of the units of study referred to in articles 9.6 to 9.7 of the bachelor's EER and in article 9.6 and 9.7 of the master's EER (Ma). Examiners are registered in OSIRIS. The lists, signed by the Examination Board, are administered by the STIP.
- b. The Examination Board determines whether a student meets the requirements for graduation or for one or more of the units of study.

5.2 Place and time of written examinations

- a. The education director or mandate determines the place and time of the written examinations and announces this in due time.
- b. If changes are made to previous announcements, or the announcement is not made on time, the change or announcement will be published in the relevant course in Brightspace.
- c. No changes may be made to the time and date of the examination less than 15 working days before the examination unless the Examination Board decides otherwise in special circumstances of force majeure.
- d. Exceptions may only be applied to b and c if the students and examiner in question have agreed to do so.

5.3 Registration for and participation in examinations and resits

- a. Registration for the first opportunity examinations is done automatically in OSIRIS through the course registration system. To register for a unit of study after it has started students will need to register manually at the Student Information Point for both the unit of study and the examination.
- b. Students must register themselves for resits. This can also be done in OSIRIS until 23:59 on the day previous to a period of five working days prior to the date of the resit in such a way that there are always 5 complete working days lay between the deadline for registration and the examination date. The examination day is never included in these 5 working days.
- c. If a student cannot register for a resit in OSIRIS because of technical reasons, the student will need to request manual registration at the STIP.
- d. Once the registration period for the resit has closed, a student will no longer be able to register for or participate in the resit. A student wishing to appeal under the hardship clause (article 10 of these regulations) will need to contact the examination board.
- e. If a student is entitled to modifications for an examination these are granted directly at the registration for the course and the resit. <https://www.ru.nl/socialsciences/stip/faculty-study-information/study-information/examinations/special-facilities/>
- f. Opt out of an examination can take up to no later than five full working days before the examination via OSIRIS.
- g. A student is deemed to have participated in an examination when having turned up for that examination. Valid proof that a student turned up is provided by the invigilator signing the student's name off on the attendance list.

5.4 Taking examinations abroad

- a. For a student, who is registered as such for a programme at Radboud University, who is residing abroad for study purposes during an examination or resit, the Examination Board may give permission to take the concerned examination or resit at that location simultaneously, under the conditions that it concerns a compulsory or permitted optional unit of study, and that this takes place according to the appropriate procedure as described at: <https://www.ru.nl/socialsciences/stip/faculty-study-information/study-information/examinations/examination-abroad/>
- b. For a student, as referred to in the previous paragraph, for whom simultaneously taking an examination or resit abroad is not possible, the Examination Board may give permission to take the examination in a different manner and/or at a different time.

5.5 Rules when administering interim examinations

For the proper course of events during examinations that are administered in RU examination rooms, the dean has adopted House rules. In order to provide the student with proper and clear information these rules have been attached to the EER as appendix 4 and to these regulations as appendix 1.

5.6 Regulations on fraud during interim examinations and examinations

To prevent fraud during interim examinations and examinations as referred to in article 7.12b WHW, the executive board of Radboud University has adopted the regulations as attached in the EER as Appendix 3 and to these regulations as Appendix 2.

5.7 Results and registration of results

- a. The examinations are assessed and given one of the following assessment marks:
- | | | |
|---------------------------|----|-----|
| - extremely poor | 1 | 1.5 |
| - very poor | 2 | 2.5 |
| - poor | 3 | 3.5 |
| - strongly unsatisfactory | 4 | 4.5 |
| - unsatisfactory | 5 | |
| - pass | 6 | 6.5 |
| - clear pass | 7 | 7.5 |
| - good | 8 | 8.5 |
| - very good | 9 | 9.5 |
| - outstanding | 10 | |
- b. If a student has undertaken an examination more than once, the latest mark received will be valid.
- c. The results of the examinations are registered by the examiner and made available to the Examination Board.

5.8 Taking examinations abroad

- a. An examination result obtained at a foreign university will be converted to the assessment qualification as stated in article 5.7. For this conversion the Examination Board will use the conversion table as agreed on at Radboud University (see <https://www.ru.nl/io/english/students/outgoing-exchange/conversion-international-grades/>).
- b. The Examination Board can issue specific restrictions of the conditions under which the permission referred to in paragraph a of this article is given.

5.9 Registration bachelor's and master's exam

STIP is responsible for registering the results of the bachelor's and master's exams in Osiris. The University Diploma Services office keeps a record of which certificates have been issued to a graduation candidate.

Article 6 Specific tasks of the examiner

1. The examiner ensures an orderly course of an examination.
2. The examiner determines in advance and publishes in due time which auxiliary materials may be used by the student during the examination.
3. With regard to sentences 1 and 2 shall apply in this jurisdiction that the invigilator is allowed to act on behalf of the examiner.

Article 7 Exemption procedure

1. Applications for exemptions will be submitted in writing, supported by reasons, to the Examination Board.
2. Before reaching a decision the Examination Board will consult the examiner in question.
3. The Examination Board will take a decision within one month following the receipt of the application.
4. The Examination Board may attach conditions to its decision to grant a full or partial exemption.

Article 8 Graduation applications

1. The Examination Board determines the results of the graduation applications for the Bachelor's programme, at the request of the student.
2. The Examination Board determines the results of the graduation applications for the Master's programme, at the request of the student.
3. A certificate is dated on the date of the last result achieved.
4. As evidence that the degree programme has been completed successfully, the Examination Board issues a certificate. The certificate is signed by at least two of the examiners appointed for this task by the Examination Board. The certificates are presented in public, except in special cases where the Examination Board decides otherwise.
5. The units of study and their results are specified on the back of the certificate, or on an appendix to the certificate. In addition, the units of study are listed that were not part of the degree programme, but that the student registered for, completed successfully and was issued the results for before the graduation application.

Article 9 Distinctions

With due observance of the provisions in Article 3.1 of the EER, the Examination Board will award a distinction if the conditions referred to have been satisfied. In response to the graduation application, OSIRIS will make a proposal for a distinction based on the regulations in the EER. Should the student disagree with the proposed distinction, he or she can propose a distinction with the Examination Board. The Examination Board may decide to deviate from the proposed distinction.

Article 10 Unforeseen circumstances and hardship clause

1. In individual cases not covered by these regulations, or insufficiently covered by these regulations, the Examination Board will be authorized to decide.
2. In exceptional cases of unfairness, the Examination Board will be entitled to make exceptions, in favor of the student, to the Education and Examination Regulations and the present Rules and Regulations.

Article 11 Appealing the assessment of an examination component

1. If a student does not agree with the assessment of an examination she-he can lodge an appeal with the Board of Appeal for Examinations. This appeal must be lodged within a period of six weeks after the examination results have been published.
2. To avoid this procedure, the student can first contact the examiner or Examination Board during or after the review or feedback session for the examination for further information or a request for reassessment. If this threatens to exceed the six weeks period, the student can lodge a 'pro forma' appeal with the Board of Appeal for Examinations to request an extension for the appeal.

Article 12 Complaints

1. Complaints and appeals with regard to procedures during an examination can be lodged with the Examination Board.
2. The complaint or appeal must meet the following formal requirements:
 - a. written and signed letter (not an email)
 - b. individual letter (not a group letter)
 - c. personal letter with reasons (not a standard letter)

Complaints and appeals will only be processed if they meet the requirements stipulated in a to c.

Article 13 Amendments

Amendments applicable to the current academic year will only be introduced if they have not reasonably been considered detrimental to the interests of examinees or graduation candidates.

Article 14 Coming into effect

These regulations shall come into effect on September 1, 2021.

Thus, decided by the Examination Board of the degree programme in Artificial Intelligence.

APPENDIX 1 REGULATIONS EXAMINATION ROOMS RU

Paragraph 1 Introductory provisions

Article 1 Purpose and scope of the regulations

For the proper course of events during interim examinations and bachelor/master examinations relating to the education and examination of the degree programme Artificial Intelligence that are administered in examination rooms at the Radboud University (hereinafter: RU), the dean of the faculty of Social Sciences of the RU adopts the following regulations.

Article 2 Definitions

The terms that are used in these regulations - in so far as these terms are also used in the Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het Hoger onderwijs en Wetenschappelijk onderzoek, hereinafter: the Act) or the Education and Examination Regulations of the degree programme (hereinafter: the EER) - have the same meaning that is given to these terms in the Act and the EER.

Article 3 Examiners and invigilators

For the administration of examinations, the examination board of the degree programme Artificial Intelligence has appointed one or more examiners.

The examiners appointed as referred to in paragraph 1 are responsible for the supervision and execution of the provisions in these regulations. On behalf of the examiner(s) appointed, one or more invigilators may be present in the examination rooms, assigned by or on behalf of the executive board.

When invigilators have been assigned, at least one appointed examiner is also present in the examination room or, as appropriate, available on call.

Article 4 Instructions by the executive board

1. These regulations include instructions in the sense of article 7.57h of the Act. In view of the executive board's mandating decision dated 15 May 2019, the dean is authorised to adopt these instructions on behalf of the executive board. The student is obliged to comply with the instructions laid down in these regulations.
2. A student who fails to comply with any instructions under these regulations may be denied access to the examination room by or on behalf of the examiner. Non-compliance with the instructions may also lead to a suspicion of fraud in the sense of the Regulations on Fraud (Regeling Fraude).

Article 5 Guidelines for examiners

These regulations include instructions in the sense of Article 7.12b of the Act. The examiner is obliged to comply with the instructions laid down in these regulations.

Article 6 Instructions by examiners for students

1. The examiner may give instructions, in the context of the instructions described in these regulations, to a student in the RU examination room if a concrete situation should be cause for this. The student is obliged to comply with these instructions.

2. The student who fails to comply with the instructions referred to in paragraph 1 may be denied access to the examination room by or on behalf of the examiner. Non-compliance with the instructions may also lead to a suspicion of fraud in the sense of the Regulations on Fraud (Regeling Fraude).

Paragraph 2 House Rules

Article 7 Admission to the examination room and leaving it

1. With respect to entering and leaving the examination rooms, the following applies:
 - a. the examination room is accessible for the student at least 15 minutes before the examination starts;
 - b. except in the circumstances described in paragraphs c and d of the present article, the student is no longer admitted into the examination room after the examination has started;
 - c. the student who arrives too late at the examination room is given the opportunity, 15 minutes following the start of the examination, to be as yet admitted into the examination room;
 - d. the student is permitted to use the toilet during the examination;
 - e. the student is not allowed to leave the examination room within the first 30 minutes following the start of the examination.
2. In special circumstances the examiner may act contrary to the provisions in paragraph 1. If the provisions in paragraph 1 are departed from, the student will be informed of this in due time.

Article 8 Student ID

1. In the examination room the student must be able to furnish proof of identity, at any time, by producing a valid identity document.
2. The student who cannot furnish proof of identity as laid down in the first paragraph of the present article will not be admitted into the examination room or can as yet be denied access to that room.

Article 9 Start and duration of the examination

The examiner starts the examination at the time scheduled. If the examination starts at a later moment in time because of relevant circumstances, the examiner ensures that the scheduled duration of the examination can be fully used by the student.

Article 10 Materials permitted in examinations

1. When taking the interim examination, the student is not allowed to have materials available that serve or could serve as auxiliary materials for the examination paper, unless the use of that material has been explicitly permitted by the examiner before the start of the examination.
2. Materials for the purpose of these regulations include, amongst other things: textbooks and dictionaries, notes and lecture notes, and watches, laptops, tablets, telephones and other smart device's and/or wearables.

Article 11 Handing in examination papers

1. When the examination ends, the student is obliged to hand in the examination paper.
2. The student may also be required to hand in other examination materials, such as examination question papers and/or note paper used during the examination.

Article 12 Peace and order, furniture and fixtures in the examination room

1. Coats, satchels, bags, etc. must be put away in compliance with the examiner's instructions.
2. In order to prevent interference with the WIFI signal, any devices that are present in the examination room, such as watches, laptops, tablets, telephones, and any other devices or smart devices and/or wearables, must be switched off in compliance with the examiner's instructions.
3. Without prejudice to the provisions in the previous paragraphs, the examiner ensures, both during and after completion of the examination, that any measures are taken as required for adequate surveillance and for maintaining the necessary peace and order in the examination room.
4. Whenever an examination is administered, the examination room has at least one clock which is clearly visible for each student.
5. Eating and drinking is allowed during the examination, unless this should prevent appropriate surveillance and/or maintaining the necessary peace and order.

Paragraph 3 Transitional provisions

Does not apply.

Paragraph 4 Final provisions

Article 13 Departure from rules and house rules

In special circumstances the examiner may depart from the provisions in these regulations.

Article 14 Adoption and amendment

1. These regulations are adopted and amended by the dean.
2. In so far as the content of these regulations relates to the duties and powers of the programme's examination board, the content must also be confirmed by that examination board.

Article 15 Effect

These regulations take effect on 1 September 2019. These regulations then replace any previous regulations.

Article 16 Publication

1. The dean ensures the appropriate publication and any amendments of these regulations.
2. For the purpose of appropriate and clear provision of information to students and prospective students, the dean includes these regulations, every year, as an appendix to the Education and Examination Regulations (Onderwijs- en Examenregeling (OER)). The examination board includes these regulations accordingly as an appendix to the Rules and Guidelines (Regels en Richtlijnen (RR)) of the programme that are laid down by that board.

Thus, adopted by the dean on June 26, 2019 and ratified by the examination board.

APPENDIX 2 REGULATIONS ON FRAUD

Paragraph 1 Introductory provisions

Article 1 Purpose and scope of the regulations

For the proper course of events during interim examinations and bachelor/master examinations relating to the education and examination of the degree programme Artificial Intelligence that are administered in examination rooms at the Radboud University (hereinafter: RU), the dean of the faculty of Social Sciences of the RU adopts the following regulations.

Article 2 Definitions

The terms that are used in these regulations - in so far as these terms are also used in the Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het Hoger onderwijs en Wetenschappelijk onderzoek, hereinafter: the Act) or the Education and Examination Regulations of the degree programme (hereinafter: the EER) - have the same meaning that is given to these terms in the Act and the EER.

Article 3 Examiners and invigilators

For the administration of examinations, the examination board of the degree programme Artificial Intelligence has appointed one or more examiners.

The examiners appointed as referred to in paragraph 1 are responsible for the supervision and execution of the provisions in these regulations. On behalf of the examiner(s) appointed, one or more invigilators may be present in the examination rooms, assigned by or on behalf of the executive board. When invigilators have been assigned, at least one appointed examiner is also present in the examination room or, as appropriate, available on call.

Article 4 Instructions by the executive board

3. These regulations include instructions in the sense of article 7.57h of the Act. In view of the executive board's mandating decision dated 15 May 2019, the dean is authorised to adopt these instructions on behalf of the executive board. The student is obliged to comply with the instructions laid down in these regulations.
4. A student who fails to comply with any instructions under these regulations may be denied access to the examination room by or on behalf of the examiner. Non-compliance with the instructions may also lead to a suspicion of fraud in the sense of the Regulations on Fraud (Regeling Fraude).

Article 5 Guidelines for examiners

These regulations include instructions in the sense of Article 7.12b of the Act. The examiner is obliged to comply with the instructions laid down in these regulations.

Article 6 Instructions by examiners for students

3. The examiner may give instructions, in the context of the instructions described in these regulations, to a student in the RU examination room if a concrete situation should be cause for this. The student is obliged to comply with these instructions.
4. The student who fails to comply with the instructions referred to in paragraph 1 may be denied access to the examination room by or on behalf of the examiner. Non-compliance with the instructions may also lead to a suspicion of fraud in the sense of the Regulations on Fraud (Regeling Fraude).

Paragraph 2 House Rules

Article 7 Admission to the examination room and leaving it

3. With respect to entering and leaving the examination rooms, the following applies:
 - a. the examination room is accessible for the student at least 15 minutes before the examination starts;
 - b. except in the circumstances described in paragraphs c and d of the present article, the student is no longer admitted into the examination room after the examination has started;
 - c. the student who arrives too late at the examination room is given the opportunity, 15 minutes following the start of the examination, to be as yet admitted into the examination room;
 - d. the student is permitted to use the toilet during the examination;
 - e. the student is not allowed to leave the examination room within the first 30 minutes following the start of the examination.
4. In special circumstances the examiner may act contrary to the provisions in paragraph 1. If the provisions in paragraph 1 are departed from, the student will be informed of this in due time.

Article 8 Student ID

3. In the examination room the student must be able to furnish proof of identity, at any time, by producing a valid identity document.
4. The student who cannot furnish proof of identity as laid down in the first paragraph of the present article will not be admitted into the examination room or can as yet be denied access to that room.

Article 9 Start and duration of the examination

The examiner starts the examination at the time scheduled. If the examination starts at a later moment in time because of relevant circumstances, the examiner ensures that the scheduled duration of the examination can be fully used by the student.

Article 10 Materials permitted in examinations

3. When taking the interim examination, the student is not allowed to have materials available that serve or could serve as auxiliary materials for the examination paper, unless the use of that material has been explicitly permitted by the examiner before the start of the examination.

4. Materials for the purpose of these regulations include, amongst other things: textbooks and dictionaries, notes and lecture notes, and watches, laptops, tablets, telephones and other smart device's and/or wearables.

Article 11 Handing in examination papers

3. When the examination ends, the student is obliged to hand in the examination paper.
4. The student may also be required to hand in other examination materials, such as examination question papers and/or note paper used during the examination.

Article 12 Peace and order, furniture and fixtures in the examination room

6. Coats, satchels, bags, etc. must be put away in compliance with the examiner's instructions.
7. In order to prevent interference with the WIFI signal, any devices that are present in the examination room, such as watches, laptops, tablets, telephones, and any other devices or smart devices and/or wearables, must be switched off in compliance with the examiner's instructions.
8. Without prejudice to the provisions in the previous paragraphs, the examiner ensures, both during and after completion of the examination, that any measures are taken as required for adequate surveillance and for maintaining the necessary peace and order in the examination room.
9. Whenever an examination is administered, the examination room has at least one clock which is clearly visible for each student.
10. Eating and drinking is allowed during the examination, unless this should prevent appropriate surveillance and/or maintaining the necessary peace and order.

Paragraph 3 Transitional provisions

Does not apply.

Paragraph 4 Final provisions

Article 13 Departure from rules and house rules

In special circumstances the examiner may depart from the provisions in these regulations.

Article 14 Adoption and amendment

3. These regulations are adopted and amended by the dean.
4. In so far as the content of these regulations relates to the duties and powers of the programme's examination board, the content must also be confirmed by that examination board.

Article 15 Effect

These regulations take effect on 1 September 2019. These regulations then replace any previous regulations.

Article 16 Publication

3. The dean ensures the appropriate publication and any amendments of these regulations.
4. For the purpose of appropriate and clear provision of information to students and prospective students, the dean includes these regulations, every year, as an appendix to the Education and Examination Regulations (Onderwijs- en Examenregeling (OER). The examination board includes these regulations accordingly as an appendix to the Rules and Guidelines (Regels en Richtlijnen (RR)) of the programme that are laid down by that board.

Thus, adopted by the dean on June 26, 2019 and ratified by the examination board.
