Paragraph 1 Introductory provisions

Article 1 Purpose of the regulations

1. In these education and examination regulations (hereinafter: regulations) the current procedures and rights and obligations have been laid down for tuition for and examination of the degree programme Master's in Philosophy (Research) Croho¹ code 60128 (hereinafter: the programme). This programme has been set up by the executive board of Radboud University and it is offered by the faculty of Philosophy, Theology and Religious Studies of Radboud University.

Article 2 Scope of the regulations

The regulations apply for all students who are registered in the academic year 2023-2024 for the programme referred to in article 1. The provisions in paragraph 2 of these regulations apply to students who register for that academic year.

Article 2a. Guidelines executive board

1. With a view to the organization and coordination of the provisions in these regulations, the executive board has adopted the following guidelines:
 - a. Guidelines Distinctions Regulation
 - b. Guidelines and Regulations First Year Study Recommendation
- 1a.
2. The provisions in these education and examination regulations apply without prejudice to the provisions of the guidelines referred to in paragraph 1 of the present article.
3. Above mentioned guidelines and other RU-regulations can be found in the PTRS Course Guide under Education and Examination Regulations.

Article 3 Definitions

1. The terms in these regulations that are also used in the Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek; hereinafter to be referred to as 'the Act') have the same meaning as these terms have in the Act.
2. Notwithstanding the provisions in paragraph 1 of the present article, the following terms have the following meanings:
 - a. Contact hour: a tuition period during which the lecturer is physically present;
 - b. Examination: an examination with respect to the knowledge, understanding and the skills of the examinee, as well as the assessment of the outcomes of that examination, An examination may consist of several parts that are taken on different dates;

¹ Central Register of Higher Education Study Programmes

- c. Resit; the re-examination of an examination as referred to in article 7.10 paragraph 1 of the Act. Where these regulations refer to examination, this term also includes resits, unless explicitly stipulated otherwise;
 - d. Premaster: a programme as referred to in article 7.30e of the Act to support students who do not meet the admission requirements;
 - e. Regulations on Fraud: the Regulations on Fraud as adopted by the dean in a separate decision.
 - f. Examination date: the date on which the examination is administered by or on behalf of the examiner;
 - g. Working day: Monday until Friday, with the exception of public holidays as referred to in the Bargaining Agreement Dutch Universities (CAO Nederlandse Universiteiten) and the collective days off set by the executive board.
3. Where these regulations refer to ‘the student’, the prospective student is included, wherever relevant.

Paragraph 2 Admission to the programme

Article 4 Registration for the programme

1. The executive board registers the student who meets the admission requirements and procedures set for registration at Radboud University, as referred to and described in chapter IV of the Registration Regulations of Radboud University.
2. For further information, the requirements and procedures referred to in paragraph 1 have been attached to these regulations as appendix I.

Article 4a. Premaster

1. To enhance a smooth transfer of a student to a programme for a student who has a bachelor’s diploma related to this programme but who does not meet the admission requirements, this student is offered the opportunity to do a premaster. The premaster programme has been included in appendix I for your information.
2. The rules with respect to registration for this premaster have been laid down by the dean on behalf of the executive board, in a separate decision and these rules have been included in the Registration Regulations of Radboud University .

Article 5. Decision on admission

1. The dean or the admissions committee decides, on behalf of the executive board, on the student’s admission to the programme.

Paragraph 3 Admission to tuition and examinations

Article 6. Registration tuition and examinations

1. The student who has enrolled, in due time and in accordance with the applicable procedures, for the tuition and the examinations of the units of study that are part of the programme and who, if applicable, meets the entry requirements laid down in these regulations, is registered for the relevant tuition and the examinations.
2. Registration for tuition and examinations is not made dependent on other financial contributions than tuition fees, unless costs should be involved, to be determined by the dean in a separate decision, in relation to participation in any practical exercises, educational excursions or workshops in the degree programme that follow from the special nature of the programme. If any costs referred to in this paragraph should be involved, these costs have been listed in the course manual for your information. The dean offers an alternative, free of charge, unless the educational facility cannot be replaced.

Article 7. Registration and deregistration for tuition

1. The student registers and deregisters, via Osiris, for tuition of the units of study that are part of the programme.
2. The student registers for tuition at the latest on Friday in the first week of the relevant teaching period. After this date registration can no longer take place, unless the Examining Board decides otherwise, in special cases, on behalf of the dean.

Article 8. Entry requirements for tuition

1. For the tuition of the units of study described in the course guide, the entry requirements described in that appendix apply. If entry requirements apply, that student cannot be registered for the tuition before these requirements have been met.
2. In special cases, the Examining Board may exempt the student, on behalf of the dean, from the entry requirements set in paragraph 1, with or without imposing alternative requirements.

Article 9. Registration and deregistration for examinations

1. The student registers and deregisters, via Osiris, for examinations of the units of study that are part of the programme.
2. The student can register for an examination ultimately at 23.59 on the day preceding a period of five working days prior to the date of the examination. After this date registration can no longer take place, unless the Examining Board decides otherwise, in special cases, on behalf of the dean.
3. Contrary to the provisions of paragraph 2, the student who has registered for tuition of a unit of study is automatically registered for the corresponding first examination of that unit of study.
4. The student who has registered for an examination can deregister ultimately at 23.59 on the day preceding a period of five working days prior to the date of the examination.

Article 10. Entry requirements for examinations

1. For the examination of the units of study described in appendix IV, the entry requirements described in the course guide apply. If entry requirements apply, that student cannot be registered for the tuition before these requirements have been met.
2. In addition to the provisions in paragraph 1, a student cannot be registered for an examination that has been passed.
3. In the case of a practicum and/or seminar, attendance during the sessions is obligatory to gain access to the examination. The attendance level requirement for a practicum and/or seminar series is set at 80% with the exception of seminars within the pre-master's programmes in Philosophy and in Religious Studies.
4. In special cases, The Examining Board may exempt the student, on behalf of the dean, from the entry requirements referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, with or without imposing alternative requirements. If an exemption is requested from the obligation to participate in practical exercises as referred to in article 7.13, second paragraph under t of the Act, the Examining Board decides on the exemption.

Paragraph 4 Structure and form of the programme

Article 11 Exit qualifications of the programme

The programme intends:

§1. Knowledge and insight

- a) Graduating students possess thorough and detailed knowledge in one specific domain of philosophy, and they therefore are acquainted with:
 - The key problems and fundamental concepts within the chosen field of specialisation; ;
 - the primary and secondary literature pertaining to the authors and questions that have been investigated.
- b) Graduating students possess solid knowledge in a philosophical discipline outside of their chosen specialisation, and therefore are acquainted with:
 - at least one author or philosophical issue outside the student's field of specialisation;
 - the primary and secondary literature pertaining to an author or question outside the student's field of specialisation.
- c) Graduating students understand the way in which their chosen specialisation is related to the overall domain of philosophy and to the landscape of academic disciplines and contemporary culture.
- d) The graduate will have knowledge of and insight into the professional field of qualified philosophers.

§2. Application of knowledge

- a) Graduating students have learned to carry out the consecutive steps of a research project, and in particular have the following knowledge and skills:
 - translating a philosophical problem into a research question and a project designed to answer the research question;
 - locating the relevant primary and secondary literature, assembling it, and evaluating its quality and relevance with respect to the research question to be answered;
 - interpreting the selected texts in a careful and critical manner that is pertinent to the question to be answered;
 - arriving at valid conclusions based on the research that has been conducted, and relating these conclusions to the original research question and the problem that lies at its roots.
- b) Graduating students are capable of dealing with philosophical and non-philosophical texts according to accepted academic standards, and notably in the processing of texts in referencing and bibliographies.
- c) Graduates can translate the philosophical knowledge they have acquired in various forms to a wider audience, and apply this knowledge to concrete cases from social practice.

§3. Judgement

- a) Graduating students are capable of forming an independent judgement with respect to the authors and issues they have treated in the chosen field of specialisation. They are, in particular, capable of:
 - placing a text or question in the relevant context;
 - analysing the argumentative structure of a philosophical text and judging its coherence and correctness;
 - judging philosophical texts and issues critically and according to their contents and domains of application.
- b) Graduating students are capable of defending their position vis-à-vis a given question in the domain of specialisation.

- a) Communication: The graduate is able to report the results of their own research both verbally and in writing and to communicate these results to both philosophical and non-philosophical trained audiences.
- b) Collaboration: The graduate is able to work together with others towards a (final) product and to make an active contribution to this work. The graduate organises the work in consultation with others and takes responsibility for their part in the collaboration.
- c) Feedback: The graduate is able to evaluate and improve a product, partly based on feedback from others and is able to provide feedback to others that supports them in evaluating and improving their work.

§5. Learning Skills

- a) Graduating students possess the learning skills that enable them to set up and carry out new philosophical research projects.
- b) Graduating students possess the skills for applying parts of their research and connecting it to relevant philosophical issues or newly emerging issues or problems.

Article 12 Study load of the programme

The programme has a study load amounting to 120 ECs. The programme's study load has been set by the executive board, in a separate decision.

Article 13 Form of the programme

The programme is taught full-time. The programme's form is determined by the executive board, in a separate decision.

Article 14 Language of the programme

The programme is taught in the English language, which is the programme's language of instruction. The programme's language of instruction is determined by the executive board, in a separate decision.

Article 15 Master examination programme

The programme has a Master's examination programme² which is aimed at realising the exit qualifications described in article 11. This examination programme constitutes a coherent complex of units of study, as described in more detail in appendix II.

Article 16 Incorporating units of study (optional courses)

1. With due consideration for the examination programme described in appendix II, the programme allows for the incorporation of 20 ECs of optional units of study from other degree programmes.
2. Upon the student's request the Examining Board incorporates the optional units of study from other degree programmes.
3. For the incorporation of the optional units of study the following conditions apply:
 - a. No repeats in content are allowed with respect to obligatory or previously included items in the examination programme.
4. A unit of study from a bachelor's programme may not be incorporated as an optional unit of study.
5. Incorporation of a unit of study is only permitted before the relevant unit of study starts.
6. In the event the study load units and the study result units of the units of study to be incorporated differ from the provisions laid down in these regulations, conversion will take place. The Examining Board will decide on the conversion, with due observance of the memo on conversion: ‘Conversion of study load and study results’ (Conversie van studiebelasting en studieresultaten).

7. Incorporation of a unit of study from other degree programmes as optional courses takes place in accordance with the relevant rules with respect to procedures and rights and obligations as referred to in article 7.13 paragraph 2 of the Act, in so far as these procedures relate to that unit of study.

Article 17 Not applicable

Article 18 Exemptions from units of study

1. The total number of exemptions is never more than 60 ECs.
2. Upon a student’s request, the Examining Board may grant the student exemption from a specific unit of study and the corresponding examination if this student:
 - a. has completed a relevant unit of study as part of a university programme which is similar both as regards content and level; or
 - b. demonstrates adequate knowledge and skills as regards the unit of study in question as a result of relevant work experience or professional experience.
3. In the assessment referred to in paragraph 2 of the present article, the Examining Board checks the current relevance of the knowledge, understanding or skills that were tested in the examination.
4. No exemption as referred is granted for
 - a. the final thesis (pre-master and master).
5. The Examining Board does not grant exemptions on the basis of results obtained in the period in which the student was barred from sitting examinations because of fraud, established by the Examining Board, as referred to in the RU Regulations on Fraud.

Article 19 Replacing units of study

Replacing compulsory units of study from the bachelor’s or master’s programme is not permitted.

Paragraph 5 Structure and form of the units of study

Article 20 Units of study organised per study year

Each unit of study is offered once per study year, unless stated otherwise in appendix II.

Article 21 Number of examinations per study year

1. Per study year, the student can sit one examination per unit of study and resit this examination once. If the student does not take the first examination opportunity, then the student will in that academic year only have the opportunity to attend the resit examination.

2. The form of the resit is the same as the form of the examination, unless stated otherwise in the course manual.

Article 22 Timetable for tuition and examinations

Per academic year, the units of study are organised in two semesters, to be set by the executive board. Appendix II at least arranges in which semester and in which period the opportunity is provided to attend courses and to sit examinations.

Article 23 Language of tuition and examinations

In view of the provisions of article 14 tuition and examinations of the units of study are provided in the language of instruction of the relevant programme. In case of an exam with open questions or a paper in a language other than Dutch the candidate is allowed to answer in Dutch with the exception of the programme Philosophy, Politics and Society where the student is required to answer in English. If the tuition and/or the examinations are provided in a different language than the language of instruction, this is referred to in the overview in the study guide and the course manual.

Article 24 Learning objectives

Each unit of study is aimed at realising the learning objectives described in these regulations. The learning objectives per unit of study have been laid down in further detail in the study guide and course manual.

Article 25 Format of tuition

The format of the tuition has been laid down per unit of study in the overview in appendix II of these regulations.

Article 26 Number of contact hours

The number of contact hours per unit of study has been laid down in appendix II.

Article 27 Format of examination

1. The examination format has been laid down per unit of study in the overview in appendix II of these regulations. The programme has the following examination formats:
 - a. written examination (WE): a written examination which the student takes at a scheduled time will usually consist of open and/or closed questions. The written examination can also be held digitally;
 - b. oral examination (OE): individual examination;
 - c. written task (WT): students will work independently on a written product, based on prior detailed criteria. Such a written assignment will usually contain a maximum of 1,500 words;
 - d. oral presentation (OP): students will present an independently formed argument, appropriate to the intended public;

- e. paper (PA): students will produce a written report of independently performed research which will address a range of questions. When producing the paper students will process and analyse the relevant literature appropriate to the questions. A paper will contain between 1,500-6,000 words;
 - f. thesis (TH): students will produce a written report of independently performed research addressing a range of questions. The report will process and analyse the relevant literature appropriate to the questions. A report will consist of more than 6,000 words. A report only concerns the internship report, the professional orientation report and the master's thesis.
2. In special cases, the programme coordinator may decide that the format of the relevant examination described in appendix II will be departed from.
 3. Written examinations are administered in the RU examination rooms.
 4. An oral examinations is held in public. An oral examination is an individual test in which not more than one person is tested at the same time. Oral examinations are to be administered in the presence of a second examiner. In special circumstances, the Examining Board may determine that the provisions in this paragraph are departed from. In special circumstances, the Examining Board may also decide that the examination is recorded.
 5. The Examining Board may allow, on behalf of the dean, students with an impairment, by way of special examination facilities, to sit examinations in a format adapted to their individual impairment. Prior to taking a decision in this matter, the Examining Board may seek expert advice. In so far as facilities in the context of a 'digital test' are concerned, the Examining Board, when formatting the facility, may seek advice from the faculty's 'digital testing coordinator'.

Paragraph 6 Testing and administering examinations

Article 28 Rules when examinations are administered

For the proper course of events during examinations that are administered in RU examination rooms, the executive board has adopted House Rules in a separate decision.

Article 29 Establishing the examination results

1. The examiner establishes the result of an examination in writing and registers this result in Osiris.
2. The result of an examination is rounded to and expressed in full or half points between 1 and 10.
If a mark is below .25 then this mark will be rounded down to .0. Results ending between .25 to .75 will be rounded off to .5. Results ending in .75 and above will be rounded up to .0.
3. Contrary to the provisions of paragraph 2 of the present article, the result of an examination is not set at 5.5 points. An arithmetical score lower than 5.5(0) is rounded to 5 and a score equal to or higher than 5.5(0) is rounded to 6.

4. If the result of an examination equals or is more than 6.0 points, the examination is considered to have been passed. If the result of the examination equals 5.0 or is less than 5.0 points, the examination is considered not to have been passed.
5. Contrary to the provisions of paragraph 2, the examiner may, if necessary, express the result of an examination in a qualification ‘requirements (not) met’ (‘(niet) voldaan’) rather than in points. If the result of an examination should be established in this way, this is described in more detail in the overview in the course manual.
6. If an examination that has already been sat is resat, the more recently obtained result always determines the result.
7. If the result of a module test equals or is more than 5.5 points, the module test is considered to have been passed. If the result of an module test is less than 5.5 points, the module test is considered to have been failed.
8. In addition to the provisions in paragraph 7 to 9, a student cannot be registered for a module test that has been passed.
9. In addition to the provisions in paragraph 7 to 10, a student can only be registered for a failed module test if the examination which the module test is part of has not been passed, i.e. if the arithmetical score of the examination is lower than 5.5(0).

Article 30. Non-numeric results

Without prejudice to the provisions of article 29, the following non-numeric results are established and registered in Osiris in the following cases:

- a. ‘VR’ – exemption (‘vrijstelling’), if the Examining Board has granted an exemption, with due consideration for the provisions in these regulations, for a unit of study from the examination programme;
- b. ‘FR’ – fraud (‘fraude’), if the Examining Board has established that fraud was committed when the examination was administered and the Examining Board has declared the result of the examination in question invalid, with due consideration of the provisions of the Regulations on Fraud attached to these regulations as appendix I;
- c. ‘EFR’ – serious fraud (‘ernstige fraude’), if the Examining Board has established that serious fraud was committed when the examination was administered and the Examining Board has declared the result of the examination in question invalid, with due consideration of the provisions of the Regulations on Fraud attached to these regulations as appendix I.

Article 31. Publication of the examination results

1. Immediately after the result of an examination has been established, the examiner provides the student administration office with the data required for the publication of this result.

2. The examiner publishes the result of a written examination within fifteen working days after the date the examination was administered. Immediately following an oral examination, but no later than five working days after it was administered, the examiner informs the student about the result and provides the student with a written statement of it. With respect to an examination other than a written or oral examination, the examiner decides, prior to the relevant examination, in which way and within which period of time the student is informed of the result. In that case the term of fifteen working days may not be exceeded.
3. Contrary to the provisions in paragraph 2, the following deadlines apply to examinations in period 4. The examiner will publish the results from the first examination opportunity within ten working days after the day on which the examination was taken. The examiner will publish the results of a resit within fifteen working days after the day on which the examination was taken.
4. In special circumstances and upon request, the Examining Board may extend or reduce the periods referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the present article.
5. When a result of an examination is published, the student is informed about the perusal and inspection rights as meant in these regulations.
6. When the result of an examination is published, the student is informed about the possibility to appeal at the examinations appeals board within the applicable appeal period.

Article 32. Perusal and inspection rights

1. For a period of at least twenty days following the publication of the result of a written examination, the student is entitled, upon his/her/their request, to peruse and inspect the work assessed.
2. Contrary to the provisions in paragraph 1, the inspection of examinations from period 4 will be held no later than two working days after the publishing of the results. For resits from period 4 of the propaedeutic phase, inspections of examinations will be held no later than two working days after the publishing of the results. The provision concerning the minimum number of working days between inspection and the next resit does not apply to these examinations.
3. For the period referred to in paragraph 1, any interested party is entitled to inspect, during the perusal, both the questions asked and the assignments set for the relevant written examination and the standards applied for the assessment.
4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2, the examiner may decide that perusal will take place for all students at the same time, on a date and at a time and place set in advance. If a student should not be able to attend this perusal because of circumstances demonstrably beyond the student's control, a separate perusal can be arranged, upon the student's request, preferably within the period of time referred to in paragraph 1 of the present article.
5. In the event the format of the examination should not allow for the perusal and inspection procedure referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, the course manual provides information on how perusal can take place.
6. In no event, the opportunity for perusal is offered fewer than five working days prior to the first following opportunity to sit the examination.

Article 33. Validity term of examinations

1. The validity term of an examination that has been passed is indefinite.
2. The validity term of the results of a module test always ends when the result of the examination corresponding to the relevant unit of study has become irrevocable.

Article 34. Master's examination

1. The programme is finalised by the master's examination.
2. The Examining Board establishes the result of the master's examination in writing as soon as the student has passed all the examinations corresponding to the units of study in the examination programme pertaining to the programme in question. The master's examination date is the date of the last examination.
3. When determining the result of the master's examination, the Examining Board also sets the master's examination date. The master's examination date is the date of the last examination as referred to in paragraph 2.

Article 35. Degree and distinction

1. The student who has passed the programme's master's examination is awarded the degree Master of Arts.
2. The Examining Board may award a distinction to the student who has successfully completed the master's examination of the programme. The rules that apply to awarding distinctions have been laid down in the Guidelines Distinctions Regulations as referred to in article 2a of these regulations..

Paragraph 7 Study progress, counselling and recommendations

Article 36 registration of study progress

The dean is responsible for the registration of the study results in such a way that the Examining Board can provide every student, upon the student's request and within a reasonable period of time, with an updated overview of the results obtained.

Article 37 Student counselling and study facilities

1. The dean is responsible for providing adequate student counselling.
2. Apart from the student counselling provided by programme, the student can in any case make use of student counselling provided by the Radboud University:

Paragraph 8 Evaluation of tuition

Article 38 Tuition evaluation method

With due observance of the quality assurance system of the institute, as laid down in the Handbook Quality Assurance System Degree Programmes Radboud University (Handboek Kwaliteitszorg Onderwijs Radboud Universiteit), the dean ensures that the tuition in the degree programme is systematically evaluated.

Paragraph 9 Transitional provisions

Not applicable.

Paragraph 10 Final provisions

Article 39 Safety net scheme and hardship clause

1. In cases not or insufficiently covered by these regulations, the dean decides.
2. In the event these regulations differ from those in the applicable statutory stipulations, the provisions in the Act prevail.
3. In the event these regulations differ from those in the course guide, the provisions in the EER prevail.

Article 40 Adoption, employee participation and amendments

1. These regulations are laid down or amended by the dean, after the programme committee (opleidingscommissie) has delivered its opinion on them and after the faculty joint assembly (facultaire gemeenschappelijke vergadering) has consented to them.

Article 41 Implementation

These regulations enter into effect on 1-9-2023 and remain valid until 31-8-2024.

Article 42 Publication

1. The dean is responsible for the appropriate publication of these regulations and of any amendments of them.
2. Any interested party is entitled to collect a copy of these regulations at the faculty office.
3. If the programme's language of instruction is the English language, the translation of these regulations is also published and made available for inspection.

Article 43 Evaluation

The dean ensures that these regulations are evaluated on a regular basis.

These regulations were laid down by the dean on 19 June 2023.

Appendix I Admission requirements and Procedures

Admission requirements

1. Admission to the Philosophy programme (60 EC) is for:
 - a) those who have successfully completed the final examination of the Bachelor's programme in Philosophy at Radboud University Nijmegen or another Dutch university;
 - b) those who have successfully completed the pre-Master's programme in Philosophy;
2. Students may also be admitted to the study programme if, in the opinion of the Examination Board, they have sufficiently demonstrated their suitability to follow the programme.

In addition to the above-mentioned admission requirements, a sufficient command of the language of instruction is required. This language requirement will be met if the student has sufficient command of the Dutch language in the case of Dutch-language specialisations.

3. Adequate command of the English language is required to be able to participate in the master's specialisation Philosophy, Politics and Society.

This language requirement is met if the student has:

- a. a Dutch academic Bachelor's degree or
- b. an academic Bachelor's degree from an English-speaking country or
- c. one of the following certificates:

 - iii. Cambridge C1 Advanced or C2 proficiency: at least C

Different times of enrolment

The master's programme in Philosophy (60 EC) has the following entry points:

- 1 September;
- 1 February.

Programme-specific entry requirements

The examination board can decide to grant students who are registered for the bachelor's programme at the university and who wish to be admitted to the master's programme, but did not yet obtain the required bachelor's degree, admission to certain components of the master's degree programme (not being (partial)exams) in anticipation of their registration for the master's degree programme. The examination board will only decide on the admission if:

- a) the student has completed the bachelor's final paper with sufficient result;
- b) the student has at least obtained 160 ECs (including those that were awarded as exemptions) of the bachelor's degree programme.

Premaster

1. An applicant is granted admission to the pre-master's if:
 - a) he/she/they has obtained a university bachelor's degree;
 - b) he/she/they has obtained a bachelor's degree from a university of applied sciences with a grade point average on the final list of the entire program of study, including the first-year phase, of 7.5 or higher.
 - c) those who have obtained a Bachelor's degree without numerical results and whose results on the final list of the entire program of study, including the first-year phase, are the equivalent grade of 7.5 or higher.
2. The pre-Master's programme (60 EC) consists of the compulsory components Academic Writing 1 and 2 (10 EC) and a TBD selection of ten courses (50 EC) chosen from the other 12 courses of the pre-Master's programme (according to the overview below).

- lecture (LE): students will acquire reproducible knowledge provided by the lecturer in support of individual study. The process stimulates and encourages students to ask questions;
- seminar (SE) (attendance is obligatory): students will produce assignments set by the lecturer to be discussed during the seminar in an interactive manner. Interaction during the seminar supports the process of independent learning. This is why attendance is obligatory;
- practicum (PR) (attendance is obligatory): students will learn specific skills following assignments set by the lecturer. Command of these skills is a learning objective in itself. The interaction and mutual feedback by students is an integral part of the learning process. This is why attendance is obligatory.
