THE CRISIS OF CITIZENSHIP IN THE ARAB WORLD

(Leiden: Brill, February/March 2017)

0. Introduction: Roel Meijer and Nils Butenschøn, Citizenship Studies and the Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World: An Introduction

PART I
THE ARAB SOCIAL PACT
1. Roel Meijer, Citizenship, Social Pacts, Rulings Bargains, and the Arab Uprisings
2. Anthony Gorman, The British Legacy in the Middle East
3. Raymond Hinnebusch and Ola Rifai, Syria: Identity, State Formation, and Citizenship
4. Sami Zemni, The Tunisian Revolution and the Question of Citizenship
5. James Sater, Patronage and Democratic Citizenship in Morocco
6. Morten Valbjørn, Like But Not the Same As---- Arab Citizenship and the Jordanian Experience
7. Stig Stenslie and Ida Almestad, Social Contract in the Al Saud Monarchy: From Subjects to Citizens?
9. Nils Butenschøn, Arab Spring and the “Iron Triangle”: Regime Survival and Conditions of Citizenship in the Arab Middle East

PART II
CONCEPTS OF CITIZENSHIP
10. Knut S. Vikør, Muslim Subjects and the Rights of God
12. Jakob Skovgaard-Petersen, Brothers and Citizens: The Second Wave of Institutional Thinking and the Concept of Citizenship
13. Emin Poljarevic, Ambiguity of Citizenship in Contemporary Salafism

PART III

PRACTICES OF CITIZENSHIP

15. Robert Springborg, Effects of Patronage Systems and Clientelism on Citizenship in the Middle East

16. Rania Maktabi, Female Citizenship and the Franchise in Kuwait after 2005

19. Conclusion: Engin F. Isin, Citizenship Studies and the Middle East