

Transitional Agreements for the pre-Master's Programme in Economics 2018-2019

In the academic year 2018-2019, the pre-Master's programme in Economics, which grants access to enrol in the Master's programme in Economics, has been revised. Information about the 'new' programme can be found in the online prospectus.

Students who started their programme before 2018-2019 could choose to finish the 'old' programme. An overview of the 'old' pre-Master's programme for international students can be found on the next pages.

Courses not offered anymore

However, due to the revision, some courses will not be offered anymore in 2018-2019. Those students who still have to finish those courses can take a replacement instead as indicated in the list below.

Courses not offered anymore in 2018-2019	Period	Replacement	Period
