REQUIREMENTS

GPA:

2.5 or above in 4.0-scale grade recommended.

Languages:

English - No official English language proficiency score is required but a CFER B2 level or above is strongly recommended.

Japanese - JLPT N1 is required in order to enroll in a course taught in Japanese.

HOUSING

Exchange students can apply to stay at the Rikkyo University International Dormitory. The housing application is included in the online application. Room availability is limited. Alternatively you can choose private housing.

Visit here for more information.

CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY & STUDENT VISA

All non-Japanese nationals must apply for a student visa prior to arrival. After notification of acceptance by Rikkyo, students must wait to receive their Acceptance Letter and Certificate of Eligibility, and then use them to apply for a student visa at their nearest Japanese Embassy or Consulate. Students who enter Japan with a tourist visa and attempt to apply for a student visa while residing in Japan will not be supported. There is no guarantee that the Japanese Immigration Bureau would grant student visas in such a case.

ARRIVING IN TOKYO

- The closest international airports are Narita airport and Haneda airport.
- There is no airport pick-up service. Tokyo and its neighboring areas are well connected by public transportations.
- From Narita airport, use Narita Express or Keisei Skyliner for easy access to the central Tokyo area; from Haneda Airport, use the Tokyo Monorail or Keikyu Line.
- Flights landing before noon are highly recommended because it will take several hours to go through the immigration and get to the city center.
- Bring some cash as not-all shops accept credit card.
- You can sign up for a SIM card during the orientation.
- Tokyo is one of the safest cities in the world, but stay cautious of your surroundings.

LIVING IN TOKYO

The City of Tokyo

Tokyo, the capital city of Japan, is one of the world's most populous and vibrant metropolitan areas. Approximately 14 million people in the city proper, with over 37 million in the Greater Tokyo Area, making it the most populous urban area in the world. It is central to Japanese economic and political activities, as well as a global hub for finance, fashion, and technology. Tokyo seamlessly combines traditional Japanese culture with cutting-edge modernity. Despite its urban density, Tokyo offers numerous parks and green spaces, such as Ueno Park and Shinjuku Gyoen and exciting entertainment culture that some of you may have never experienced before!

Cost of Living

The average monthly living expense for international students in Tokyo is approximately ¥160,000 yen.

Mandatory Travel Insurance (Mandatory)

Exchange students are required to have a valid travel insurance issued within their home country.

National Health Insurance Program (Mandatory)

Exchange students are required to join the National Health Insurance Program (Kokumin Kenko Hoken) as required under Japanese Immigration Law. The National Health Insurance will defray about 70% of the total cost of covered medical procedures. The Insurance premiums are approximately ¥5,000 per month.

Rikkyo Student Mutual-Aid Health Insurance (Optional)

Exchange students are welcome to join an additional student insurance organized by the Japan University Union. This insurance will defray the 30% of total medical costs which, combined with the National Health Insurance Program, effectively assures students of complete medical coverage. The Insurance premiums are approximately ¥1,750 per semester.

Commuter pass for Trains/Metros

Exchange students are qualified to have a commuter pass at a student discount rate for trains/metros between the main campus (either Ikebukuro or Niiza) and your residence. Depending on your commuting route, the monthly fee can range from ¥2,000 to ¥5,000.

STUDENT SERVICES ON CAMPUS

Student Counseling Center

The Student Counseling Center provides counseling services regarding a variety of issues encountered in student life. Students can receive a referral to an appropriate medical institution or care facility if needed. English is available in some sessions. Please contact COB Office to make an appointment for an English session.

Visit here for more information.

Support Office for Students with Special Needs

To foster an inclusive environment that addresses both academic challenges and broader aspects of campus living for students with special needs, specialist coordinators will work together to tailor accommodations to the unique needs of each student. Support such as note-taking assistance, accessible materials, and modified exam arrangement are available. Please contact COB Office for a consultation.

Both Ikebukuro and Niiza campus are designed to be accessible for people with physical disabilities.

Visit here for more information.

Other Facilities

RU offers a wide range of facilities, including modern libraries, sports centers (training gym, tennis courts, 50m-pool, etc.), on-campus health clinic, several dinings and cafes, and a chapel for reflecting its Christian heritage.
