Our units of study

Our Short-Term Program offers the largest unit of study selection in Australia to Study Abroad and Exchange students. Each unit is taught in an intensive format, while maintaining credit values. Many units of study are taught alongside local students and provide hands-on experiential learning in an Australian context. Students can enrol in either session: “Short-Term A” or “Short-Term B” and select up to two units of study.

Most units of study have no pre-requisites and are great for general elective credit back home. We also have some more specialised, core units of study, designed for Business and Liberal-Arts majors.

In 2021, some of our most popular unit of study options include:

- Introduction to Gender Studies (GCST1602): This unit examines how gender organises lives, bodies, sexualities and desires. Students will be introduced to foundational concepts in the study of gender and will critically engage with questions of identity, sexuality, family, the body, cultural practices and gender norms in light of contemporary gender theories.
- Australian Theatre Film and Learning (EDUF3034): This unit examines the Australian identity through an exploration of Australian film, theatre, and television (traditional formats) as well as new digital content and delivery platforms. The unit focuses on young Australian playwrights, performers and filmmakers, and the range of learning that

- takes place through young people's engagement in, and appreciation of, theatre, film, television and digital content. Students participate in excursions to local theatre productions around Sydney.
- Bioethics (HPSC1000): This unit explores major issues in the ethics of biology and medicine, from gene modification to Dolly the sheep. Science has given us nearly infinite possibilities for controlling life. As a consequence, difficult ethical questions are raised in increasingly complex cultural and social environments.
  - Effective Project Communication (ENGG1863): This unit focuses on project management and its relationship to program and portfolio management as applied in a variety of industries. It covers variations in project management, primary professional standards, project management terminology and how projects are constructed and progressed through effective communication.
  - Corporate Finance 1 (FINC2011): This unit provides an introduction to basic concepts in corporate finance and their application, including valuation of risky assets like stocks, bonds and even entire corporations; pricing of equity securities; and corporate financial policy decisions including dividend, capital structure and risk management policies.

- International Human Resources Management (WORK3201): This unit considers the opportunities and challenges associated with managing employees in international and cross-cultural contexts, with specific emphasis on international recruitment, selection, preparation, placement, management development, performance management, reward and remuneration in the international, multi-national and trans-national corporation.
- Introduction to Indigenous Cultures (INDG1001): This unit introduces students to Indigenous Australia in a stimulating, in-depth study of traditional and contemporary forms of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural expression. Ranging from the Dreaming and ancient knowledges, ceremony and lore, to the lives and societies of Indigenous peoples today. Students learn in areas such as Aboriginal kinship, language, story and art, Indigenous agriculture, aquaculture and astronomy, and contemporary Indigenous cultures and cultural currents.

- Sport and Learning in Australian Culture (EDUH4058): This unit provides students with a socially critical perspective on the place, meaning and practice of sport in Australian culture. Focused on the range of learning that takes place through youth's engagement in sport, it examines the practice of sport at levels ranging from elite international sport to grass roots, community-based and school sport. Students in this unit participate in excursions to local rugby, Australian rules football (AFL), beach sports events, and more!
