Join Radboud Summer School 2019!
Lecturing in the International Classroom

change perspective

Radboud University
Do you find it difficult to teach an international student audience? Are you able to get your message across? Can you facilitate and manage student discussions?

Lecturing in the International Classroom is a crash course aimed at improving the language and communication skills you need in order to be an effective teacher in English. Start the new academic year with an in-depth look at everything it takes to give great lectures, engage with your audience and work with an international classroom.

The course covers all aspects of teaching in English, from fluency and language to developing an appreciation of the varied requirements of international students. You will be guided through various aspects effective lectures; from establishing a safe learning environment for second language learners, developing materials and activities in English which are effective and accessible, and finally how to generate and manage those vital student discussions that cement their learning. Through a combination of practical in-class activities and intensive self-study, you will be supported to develop and perfect your ideas.

By the end of course, you will have the tools and inspiration to revamp, reuse and reorder your material to deliver great, impactful lectures and develop meaningful engagement with your students.

After this course you are able to

- Feel more comfortable when lecturing in English
- Provide a safe and productive learning environment
- Be familiar with the academic vocabulary
- Deal with your international student audience by being more aware of the intercultural aspects

Number of EC
None

Course leader
Lorraine Faulds, MA
Language and Communication Coach
Radboud in'to Languages
Radboud University
Entry level
PhD, Postdoc and Professional

This course is designed for
Lecturers at university level who use English as a medium of instruction and want to learn about establishing a safe learning environment for second language learners. And lecturers who want to develop effective materials and activities in English, and generate and manage vital student discussions

You can find more details about this course on our website

Course date
Monday 12 August - 16 August 2019

Course fee
€ 775

Deadline application
1 June 2019

Discounts
- 10% discount for early bird applicants. The early bird deadline is 1 March 2019.
- 15% discount for students and PhD candidates from partner universities. Please note that these discounts can be combined if you apply before 1 March 2019.

Apply now!
What is the RSS experience?

RSS is more than just a course!

Radboud Summer School offers you a unique opportunity to meet other students and researchers from all over the world with different cultural and academic backgrounds. You will also get to know Radboud University and the city of Nijmegen.

Our social programme includes a welcome reception, guest lecture and farewell drinks. And for a small fee you can join our BBQ, River Cruise on a pancake boat, a Pub Quiz, Sports Activities or a City Game.

Want to know more?
Have a look at what participants have said about their experience on our website!

Contact
T. +31-248187706
E: Radboudsummerschool@ru.nl
F: RadboudSummerSchool
I: Radboudsummerschool

www.ru.nl/radboudsummerschool