RULES AND REGULATIONS EXAMINATION BOARD ANTHROPOLOGY AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES 2018-2019

Article 1  Scope
The following is in regards to the regulations introduced by the Examination Board for the degree programmes in Anthropology and Development studies to ensure a smooth procedure during the first year, Bachelor’s and Master’s phases of the Anthropology and Development Studies programme and during all examinations and related units of study.

Article 2  Definitions
Any terms used in the present regulations that are also contained in or arise from the Structure Regulations will retain the meaning given to them in those regulations. Furthermore, the following terms will be understood to mean:
1. Education and Examination Regulations: the education and examination regulations that apply for the Bachelor’s and Master’s programmes in Anthropology and Development Studies, introduced by the faculty dean, and hereinafter referred to as the EER;
2. Examination Board: the Examination Board of the Bachelor’s and Master’s programme in Anthropology and Development Studies;
3. Examiner: a person appointed by the Examination Board to administer examinations and determine the results;
4. Units of study: the courses listed in the EER that the student must follow and the related examinations that the student must complete successfully to obtain the first year, Bachelor’s or Master’s degree;
5. Examination: an evaluation of the student’s knowledge, understanding and skills concerning a specific unit of study and the assessment given for this evaluation by at least one of the examiners appointed by the Examination Board; the term ‘examination’ is understood to mean all test forms;
6. Student: a person enrolled for and preparing to complete a first year, Bachelor’s or Master’s degree;
7. Graduation candidate: a person who has completed the requirements for the first year, Bachelor’s or Master’s degree;
8. OSP: the faculty’s education service point, Montessorilaan 3;
9. OSIRIS: the university’s student information system.

Article 3  Composition
1. One joint Examination Board is established for each Bachelor’s and related Master’s programme.
2. In exception to the provisions in paragraph 1, the dean can decide, in consultation with the institute director, to establish one joint Examination Board for a number of different degree programmes.
3. The Examination Board consists of three or five members, appointed on the basis of their expertise of the study programme or group of programmes concerned. At least one member is a lecturer of the programme(s). At least one member is not part of the degree programme’s staff.
4. The student advisor also acts as an advisor to the Examination Board.
5. After consulting with the director of the relevant education institute and hearing the other members of the board, the dean will appoint the members and the chair for a period of four years.

Article 4  Day-to-day affairs
1. The Examination Board will appoint a vice chair who will replace the chair when he or she is absent.
2. The Examination Board will appoint a secretary from among its members who is responsible for preparing meetings and implementing decisions, among other things.
3. The chair and the secretary are responsible for handling day-to-day affairs.
4. The Examination Board authorises the chair and the secretary to sign certain documents, either jointly or separately, on behalf of the Examination Board.

Article 5  Work procedure
The Examination Board may introduce standing orders that provide for the working procedure in further detail.

Article 6  Procedure for examinations
6.1 Administering examinations
1. The Examination Board yearly appoints examiners for administering examinations and determining the results of the units of study referred to in article 9.5 of the EER.
2. The Examination Board determines whether a student meets the requirements for graduation or for one or more of the components.

6.2 Language used during the examinations
1. The (re-sits) of examinations of the units of study taught in English are set in English, unless the Examination Board decides otherwise (see also the Radboud University Policy for use of Foreign Languages / Gedragscode Vreemde Taal van de Radboud Universiteit).
2. Bachelor’s Students are permitted to use an English-Dutch dictionary, c.q. English-native language for examinations in English. Master’s students are not permitted to use a dictionary.
3. Students with a non-Dutch background are allowed to use a translation dictionary (native language-Dutch, Dutch-native language).
4. Bachelor essays can be written in either Dutch or English. In both cases the student is responsible for a professional language correction of the final essay.

6.3 Place and time of written examinations
1. The Examination Board determines the place and time of the written examinations and announces this in due time.
2. If changes are made to previous announcements, or the announcement is not made on time, the change or announcement will be published on the digital learning environment.
3. No changes may be made to the time of the examination less than 15 workdays before the examination, unless the Examination Board decides otherwise in special circumstances of force majeure.
4. Exceptions may only be applied to paragraphs 2 and 3 if the students and examiner in question have agreed to do so.
6.4 Registration for and participation in examinations and re-sits

1. Students can register for examinations and re-sits in OSIRIS. If the result of an examination is insufficient, a student can register for the re-sit until five days prior to the date of the re-sit.
2. If a student cannot register for a resit in OSIRIS because of technical reasons, the student will need to manually register at the OSP.
3. Once the registration period for the resit has closed, a student will no longer be able to register for or participate in the re-sit. A student wishing to appeal under the hardship clause (article 11 of these regulations) will need to contact the head of the OSP.
4. If modifications are required for an examination, the student must submit the request in OSIRIS. This can be done during the registration for participating in examinations, else at least 10 working days before the examination takes place.
5. If a student decides not to participate in an examination for which the student has already been registered, he/she must sign out in OSIRIS for the course and the exam. If this is not possible in OSIRIS, the student must contact OSP to unsubscribe from both the course and the exam. The student also notifies the teacher that he/she no longer will take part in the course.
6. Opt out of an examination can take up to no later than five working days before the examination via OSIRIS.
7. A student is deemed to have participated in an examination when he/she has turned up for that examination. Valid proof that a student turned up is provided by the invigilator signing the student’s name off on the attendance list.

6.5 Taking examinations abroad

1. For a student, who is registered as such for a programme at Radboud University, who is residing abroad for study purposes during a re-sit, it is possible to take the concerned re-sit at that location simultaneously, under the condition that this takes place according to the appropriate procedure ‘Procedure taking exams at home university of exchange student’ (https://www.ru.nl/ioss/exchange-0/exams-your-home-university).
2. For a student, as referred to in the previous paragraph, for whom simultaneously taking an examination or re-sit abroad is not possible, it is possible to take an alternative examination, through a replacing assignment.

6.6 Rules when administering interim examinations

For the proper course of events during examinations that are administered in RU examination rooms, the executive board has adopted House rules. In order to provide the student with proper and clear information these rules have been attached to these regulations as appendix 1.

6.7 Regulations on fraud during interim examinations and examinations

To prevent fraud during interim examinations and examinations as referred to in article 7.12b WWH, the executive board of Radboud University has adopted the regulations as attached in Appendix 2.

6.8 Results and registration of results

1. The examinations are assessed and given one of the following assessment marks:
   - extremely poor 1 1.5
   - very poor 2 2.5
2. If a student has undertaken an examination more than once, the latest mark received will be valid.

3. The results of the examinations are registered by the examiner and made available to the Examination Board.

4. The Examination Board may decide to deviate from the marks and ECs for foreign passed courses.

5. The university Examinations Office is responsible for registering the results of all examinations. This office also keeps a record of which certificates have been issued to a graduation candidate.

Article 7 Specific tasks of the examiner

1. The examiner ensures an orderly course of an examination. The examiner determines whether examinations may or may not be taken by the student at the end of an examination.

2. The examiner determines in advance and publishes in due time which auxiliary materials may be used by the student during the examination.

3. With regard to sentences 1 and 2 shall apply in this jurisdiction that the invigilator is allowed to act on behalf of the examiner.

Article 8 Exemptions

1. Applications for exemptions will be submitted in writing, supported by reasons, to the chair of the Examination Board.

2. Before reaching a decision the Examination Board will consult the examiner in question.

3. The Examination Board will take a decision within two months following the receipt of the application.

4. The Examination Board may attach conditions to its decision to grant a full or partial exemption.

Article 9 Graduation applications

1. The Examination Board determines the results of the first year graduation applications at least once a year, at the end of the first year programme.

2. The Examination Board can furthermore determine the results of the first year graduation applications in the course of the academic year at any other time they decide to.

3. The Examination Board determines the results of the graduation applications for the Bachelor’s programme, at the request of the student, once a month.
4. The Examination Board determines the results of the graduation applications for the Master’s programme at the request of the student, once a month.

5. A certificate is dated on a predetermined graduation date. All examination results must be registered before this date.

6. As evidence that the degree programme has been completed successfully, the Examination Board issues a certificate. The certificate is signed by at least two of the examiners in the Examination Board appointed for this task. The certificates are presented in public, except in special cases where the Examination Board decides otherwise.

7. The units of study and the result are specified on the back of the certificate, or on an appendix to the certificate. Listed above these are the units of study that were not part of the degree programme, but that the student registered for, completed successfully and was issued the results for before the graduation application.

Article 10 Distinctions procedure

With due observance of the provisions in appendix 1 of the EER, the Examination Board will award a distinction if the conditions referred to have been satisfied. In response to the graduation application, OSIRIS will make a proposal for a distinction based on the regulations in the EER. The Examination Board may decide to deviate from the proposed distinction.

Article 11 Unforeseen circumstances and hardship clause

1. In individual cases not covered by these regulations, or insufficiently covered by these regulations, the Examination Board will be authorised to decide.

2. In exceptional cases of extreme unfairness, the Examination Board will be entitled to make exceptions, in favour of the student, to the Education and Examination Regulations and the present Rules and Regulations.

Article 12 Appeal procedure for assessment of a degree component

1. If a student does not agree with the assessment of an examination he/she can lodge an appeal with the Board of Appeal for Examinations. This appeal must be lodged within a period of six weeks after the examination results have been published.

2. To avoid this procedure, the student can first contact the examiner or Examination Board during or after the review or feedback session for the examination for further information or a request for reassessment. If this threatens to exceed the six weeks period, the student can lodge a ‘pro forma’ appeal with the Board of Appeal for Examinations to request an extension for the appeal.

Article 13 Complaints

1. Complaints and appeals with regard to procedures during an examination can be lodged with the Examination Board.

2. The complaint or appeal must meet the following formal requirements:
   a. written and signed letter (not an email);
   b. individual letter (not a group letter);
c. personal letter with reasons (not a standard letter).
Complaints and appeals will only be processed if they meet the requirements stipulated in a to c.

Article 14 Amendments
Amendments applicable to the current academic year will only be introduced if they have not reasonably been considered detrimental to the interests of examinees or graduation candidates.

Article 15 Coming into effect
These regulations shall come into effect with retroactive effect on September 1, 2018.
Thus, decided by the Examination Board of the degree programme in Anthropology and Development Studies.
APPENDIX 1 REGULATIONS EXAMINATION ROOMS RU

Paragraph 1 Introductory provisions

Article 1 Purpose of the regulations
1. For the proper course of events during examinations that are taken in examination rooms at the Radboud University (hereinafter: RU), the executive board of RU adopts the following regulations.
2. For the harmonisation of the provisions in these regulations between faculties, these regulations have been laid down as 'comply-explain' regulations (pas-toe-leg-uit-regeling).

Article 2 Scope of the regulations
1. These regulations apply both to the initial RU programmes and for the students who have registered for these programmes.
2. The executive board may decide, in a separate decision, to apply these regulations mutatis mutandis to the other programmes offered by RU.

Article 3 Definitions
The terms that are used in these regulations - in so far as these terms are also used in the Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het Hoger onderwijs en Wetenschappelijk onderzoek, hereinafter: WHW) - have the same meaning that is given to these terms in the WHW.

Article 4 Examiners and invigilators
1. For the supervision and execution of the provisions in these regulations, the relevant Examination Board appoints at least one examiner. On behalf of the examiner(s) appointed, one or more invigilators may be present in the examination rooms, by or on behalf of the executive board.
2. When invigilators are deployed, as referred to in the first paragraph of this article, the relevant examiner is also present in the examination room or, as appropriate, contactable.

Article 5 Guidelines and instructions
These regulations include guidelines for the purpose of article 7.12b WHW. The examiner must comply with the guidelines laid down in these regulations.

Article 6 Rules and instructions
1. These regulations include instructions for the purpose of Article 7.57h WHW. The examiner can also give instructions to the student. The student must comply with the rules and instructions laid down in these regulations.
2. The student who fails to comply with the rules under these regulations, or who fails to follow the instructions, may be denied access to the examination room by or on behalf of the examiner. Not complying with the rules or not following instruction may also lead to a suspicion of fraud in the sense of the Regulations on Fraud (Regeling Fraude).
Paragraph 2  House Rules

Article 7 Admission to the examination room and leaving it
1. The examination room is accessible for the student at least 15 minutes before the interim examination starts.
2. Except in the circumstances described in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the present article, the student is no longer admitted into the examination room after the interim examination has commenced.
3. The student who arrives too late at the examination room is given the opportunity, 15 minutes following the commencement of the interim examination, to be as yet admitted into the examination room.
4. During the interim examination the student is permitted to use the toilets.
5. For 30 minutes following the commencement of the interim examination and for 30 minutes before the end of the interim examination, the student is not permitted to leave the examination room.

Article 8 Student ID
1. In the examination room the student must be able to furnish proof of identity, at any time, by producing an RU student card or a valid identity card.
2. The student who cannot furnish proof of identity as laid down in the first paragraph of the present article will not be admitted into the examination room or can as yet be denied access to that room.

Article 9 Commencement interim examination
The examiner starts the interim examination in time and sees to it that the examination time available can be fully used by the student.

Article 10 Materials permitted in interim examinations
1. When taking the interim examination, the students are not allowed to have materials available that serve or could serve as auxiliary materials for the examination paper, unless the use of that material has been explicitly permitted by the examiner before the interim examination's commencement.
2. Materials for the purpose of these regulations include, amongst other things: textbooks and dictionaries, notes and lecture notes, and watches, laptops, tablets, telephones and other smart device's and/or wearables

Article 11 Handing in examination papers
When the interim examination ends, the student must hand in the examination paper to the examiner. In relevant circumstances, the student may also be requested to hand in other examination materials, such as examination question papers and/or note paper used during the interim examination.

Article 12 Peace and order and layout of the examination room
1. Both during and after completion of the interim examination, the examiner sees to it that measures are taken that are required for adequate surveillance and for maintaining the necessary peace and order in the examination room. Eating and drinking is allowed during the interim examination, with due observance of the provisions in these regulations.

2. When interim examinations take place, each examination room will have at least one clock which is clearly visible for each student.

Paragraph 3  Transitional provisions

Does not apply.

Paragraph 4  Final provisions

Article 13  Departure from rules and house rules

In special circumstances the examiner may depart from the provisions in these regulations.

Article 14  Adoption and amendment

1. These regulations have been adopted by the executive board in accordance with the 'comply-explain' principle.

2. In so far as the content of these regulations relates to the duties and powers of the faculty’s dean or the duties and powers of the programme’s Examination Board, the content must also be confirmed by that dean or that Examination Board. Without any comments by the dean or the Examination Board as referred to in the first paragraph of the present article, confirmation will take place five months after the regulations have been adopted.

Article 15  Effect

With due observance of the provisions in Article 14, these regulations take effect on 1 September 2018. These regulations will then replace any previous regulations.

Article 16  Publication

1. The executive board sees to the appropriate publication and possible amendments of these regulations.

2. For the purpose of appropriate and clear provision of information to students and prospect students, the dean and the Examination Board will include these regulations, every year, as an appendix to the Education and Examination Regulations (Onderwijs- en Examenregeling (OER) and as an appendix to the Rules and Guidelines (Regels en Richtlijnen (RR)) of the programme.
APPENDIX 2  REGULATIONS ON FRAUD

Paragraph 1  Introductory provisions

Article 1  Purpose of these regulations
1. To prevent fraud during interim examinations and examinations as referred to in article 7.12b WHW, the executive board of Radboud University (hereinafter: RU) adopts the following regulations.
2. For the harmonisation of the provisions in these regulations between faculties, these regulations have been laid down as 'comply-explain' regulations (pas-toe-leg-uit-regeling).

Article 2  Scope of these regulations
1. These regulations apply both to the initial RU programmes and for the students who have registered for these programmes.
2. The executive board may decide, in a separate decision, to apply these regulations mutatis mutandis to the other programmes offered by RU.

Article 3  Definitions
The terms that are used in these regulations - in so far as these terms are also used in the Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het Hoger onderwijs en Wetenschappelijk onderzoek, hereinafter: WHW) - have the same meaning that is given to these terms in the WHW.

Paragraph 2  Definition fraud, procedure and sanctions

Article 4  Definition of fraud
1. At RU, fraud is understood to mean any act or omission by a student which, in its nature, is intended to have as an effect that proper assessment of the knowledge, understanding and skills of that student or another student, is made fully or partially impossible.
2. Fraud is in any case understood to mean:
   a. fraud when taking written interim examinations, including
      - having materials available which are not permitted under the House Rules Examinations Rooms RU Regulations (Regeling Huisregels Tentamenruimten RU);
      - copying or exchanging information;
      - passing oneself off as someone else, or being represented by someone else during interim examinations;
   b. fraud when producing theses and other papers, including
      - plagiarism in the sense of using or copying someone else’s texts, data or ideas without complete and correct source references, plagiarism in the sense of copying the work of another student and presenting this as one’s own work and other specifically academic forms of plagiarism; insofar as it leads to the description in paragraph 1.
      - fabricating (making up) and/or falsifying (distorting) research data;
- submitting a thesis or another paper that was written by someone else.

3. An attempt to commit fraud will also be seen as fraud for the purpose of these regulations.

Article 5 Procedure for suspicion of fraud
1. When fraud is suspected, the Examination Board or the examiner immediately informs the student of this suspicion. If the suspicion of fraud is established when the interim examination or the examination is administered, the Examination Board or the examiner will allow the student to complete the interim examination or the examination.
2. The Examination Board or the examiner may order the student to make any material related to the suspicion of fraud available to them.
3. The Examination Board or the examiner drafts a report of the suspicion of fraud. If the examiner drafts the report, he will send this report to the Examination Board without delay.
4. The examiner can have him- or herself be represented by an invigilator or another RU employee.

Article 6 Procedure for investigation and determination of fraud
1. The Examination Board makes the report referred to in article 5 available to the student without delay and then starts an investigation into the matter. The Examination Board provides the student with the opportunity to respond to the report in writing. The Examination Board hears both the examiner and the student.
2. Within four weeks following the date the report was made available to the student, the Examination Board decides whether fraud was actually committed. The Examination Board informs both the student and the examiner of their decision in writing. The four-week period may be extended by two weeks.
3. If fraud is established, the Examination Board declares the relevant interim examination or examination invalid.
4. If fraud is established, the Examination Board records both the fact that fraud was committed and the sanction imposed in the student’s student file.

Article 7 Sanctions
1. If the Examination Board has established fraud has been committed, the board may:
   a. determine that the student may not sit one or more interim examinations or examinations during a period to be set by the Examination Board, which period will be a maximum of one year;
   b. determine that no distinction will be awarded on the degree certificate;
c. make a recommendation to the Dean of the Honours Academy that the student should not be admitted to the honours programme of the university or the faculty or recommend that the student's participation in the honours programme of the university or the faculty should be ended.

If the Examination Board has established that serious fraud has been committed, the board may also

d. make a recommendation to the executive board that the student's registration for a programme should be terminated with definitive effect.

2. After the Examination Board has established that serious fraud has been committed, the executive board - upon Examination Boards’ recommendation - may terminate the student's registration for a programme with definitive effect.

3. The sanctions as referred to in this article are imposed as from the day following the date the student is notified of the decision that sanctions are imposed.

Paragraph 3  Transitional provisions

Does not apply.

Paragraph 4  Final provisions

Article 8  Decisions and legal protection

1. Decisions pursuant to these regulations may be sent to the student digitally and/or by email.

2. The student can appeal against any decision made under these regulations, within six weeks following the date on the relevant decision, by lodging a notice of appeal at the Examinations Appeals Board (College voor Beroep van de Examens (CBE)).

Article 9  Adoption and amendment

1. These regulations have been adopted by the executive board in accordance with the 'comply-explain' principle.

2. In so far as the content of these regulations relates to the duties and powers of the faculty's dean or the duties and powers of the programme's Examination Board, the content must also be confirmed by that dean or that Examination Board. Without any comments by the dean or the Examination Board as referred to in the first paragraph of the present article, confirmation will take place five months after the regulations have been adopted.

Article 10  Effect

With due observance of the provisions in Article 9, these regulations take effect on 1 September 2018. These regulations will then replace any previous regulations.
Article 11 Publication

1. The executive board sees to the appropriate publication and possible amendments of these regulations.

2. For the purpose of appropriate and clear provision of information to students and prospect students, the dean and the Examination Board will include these regulations, every year, as an appendix to the Education and Examination Regulations (Onderwijs- en Examenregeling, OER) and as an appendix to the Rules and Guidelines (Regels en Richtlijnen, R&R) of the programme.
