

Centre for International Training and Education's 2025 summer schools

Tuition Fee waiver spots for Radboud University

As a partner of the University of Leicester, Radboud University can offer our students 1 spots at their Summer Schools with a Tuition Fee Waiver. The following conditions apply to this fee waiver

Conditions

- The scholarship will be in the form of a fee waiver for a specific International Summer Programme. Please ensure the applicant has received an offer for the International Summer Programme they are interested in before submitting a scholarship application.
- The participant will be liable for all other costs of attending the International Summer Programme, such as for travel, subsistence, visas and insurance. The scholarship is not valid for any other University of Leicester course.
- The applicant must meet the entry requirements for the course being applied for. Relevant documents of successful applicants will be checked before an invitation letter is sent.
- The scholarship is only valid for 2025 International Summer Programmes. It cannot be deferred by the applicant until a subsequent academic year.
- No cash alternatives will be offered and the scholarship cannot be transferred to any other course at the University of Leicester.
- Scholarships are awarded at the discretion of the University of Leicester and the decision of the judging panel is final.
- The University of Leicester reserves the right to revise, review or withdraw the scholarship up to the point of invitation if the applied for course is no longer run. The student will be informed in advance of this decision at the earliest opportunity.

In case you are interested in this fee waiver spot, please send an email to studentexchange@ru.nl and attach your Transcript of Records and a motivation letter for taking part in one of these Summer Schools. The deadline to apply for a tuition fee waiver spot is 1 June 2025.

After this deadline, team Student Life and International Mobility (SLIM) will inform the student who have been selected for the fee waiver spot as soon as possible. Radboud University nominates these students at University of Leicester for the fee waiver spot and the student then still needs to apply for the programme they want to take part in themselves.

Programmes

English for Humanities International Summer Programme

Discover British literature and history and develop your English skills at the University of Leicester.

More information on this programme and apply for the programme through this link:

<https://le.ac.uk/cite/eltu/short-courses/summer/study/humanities>

Aims

The main aims of this three-week course are to help participants improve their ability in both general and academic English, while also learning more about humanities subjects offered by the University of Leicester in enjoyable surroundings. It also aims to give participants an insight into life in the UK and its higher education system.

Why join the English for Humanities International Summer Programme?

- Improve your English skills in an academic and friendly environment
- Discover more about British culture, featuring films, literature, history and museums
- Develop general English language skills for everyday communication
- Find out what it's like to live and study at a renowned British university
- Make friends with other students from around the world
- Up to 17 hours of face-to-face taught classes per week on the University of Leicester campus. Classes generally take place between 9.30am-11.00am, 11.30am-1.00pm and 2.00pm-4.00pm
- Maximum group size of 16, allowing you to learn through interaction with the tutor and other students
- Enhance your CV with an international study experience
- Experience living in a vibrant and student friendly city situated in the heart of England
- Full access to the online resources of the award-winning David Wilson library

Course contents

- Daily English classes, focusing on both general and academic English, with particular emphasis on speaking and listening skills

- A mixture of seminars and lectures on British culture, focusing on film studies, museum studies and English literature, with particular emphasis on Shakespeare and the discovery of the remains of King Richard III
- An individual research project and poster presentation
- Three day trips to places of interest such as London, Oxford and Stratford-upon-Avon
- Three evening social activities with students from other international summer programmes: a welcome meal, cultural or social event, and a farewell party
- Some free time, making it possible to visit other cities or places of interest independently
- An end-of-course presentation ceremony and tutor feedback

What is the difference between Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme and English for Humanities International Summer Programme?

The English for Humanities International Summer Programme requires a higher English level (IELTS 5.0 and above) and contains more academic content. It is most suitable for those who wish to develop an established interest in the humanities, in areas such as British literature and history.

The Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme aims to offer a general introduction to British life and culture. Although there are clear academic themes within course, there is more of focus on activities outside the classroom than with the English for Humanities International Summer Programme. It requires a lower IELTS level of 3.5 - 5.0.

Key facts

Dates for summer 2025

- Course dates: Monday 4 August to Friday 22 August 2025 (accommodation available from Saturday 2 August to Saturday 23 August 2025). Accommodation for additional nights may be booked at a cost of £30 per night.
- Application deadline: Sunday 22 June 2025
- Acceptance and payment deadline: Sunday 29 June 2025
- Registration deadline: Sunday 6 July 2025
- Please note: to ensure courses are allocated in a timely and fair fashion, once an offer letter has been issued, we require you to accept or decline within 21 calendar days.

Entry requirements

- Participants are expected to have a minimum English level of IELTS 5.0 or equivalent. We will accept a range of test results, including:
 - CASEC
 - CET4/CET6

- EIKEN
- GTEC
- TOEFL
- TOEIC
- Please upload evidence of your English test on your online application
- We may be able to test your English
- Participants must be aged 18 or over

Please email us at summer@le.ac.uk if you have any questions.

Expectations on the course

- Show willingness to engage with tutors and students during class
- Attend all sessions on the timetable
- Be open and kind to students from other backgrounds

Accommodation

- Accommodation will be in self-catered university accommodation within walking distance of the campus and the city centre
- Participants will be housed in a single study bedroom with ensuite bathroom and will share kitchen facilities. All bills and Wi-Fi access are included. Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided

Cost

- £2,300 per student
- £2,200 for students from a University of Leicester partner

Payment is required in full to accept a place on the course.

What's included

- Tuition fees for all classes
- Self-catered ensuite accommodation
- All excursions and social events
- All study materials
- Access to University of Leicester facilities including the award-winning David Wilson library
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- International Summer Programme T-shirt
- Closing ceremony with prize giving
- Applicants should be aware that trips and socials will include unsupervised time not accompanied by members of staff

What's not included

- Airport transfers
- Meals and beverages, unless specified in the timetable
- Towel and toiletries
- Visa costs

- Medical and travel insurance
- Access to the university gyms. Short term membership can be purchased at a cost of £10 per week

Refund/cancellation policy

- Up to 6 July 2025 - Full refund
- 7 July to 20 July 2025 - Half refund
- 21 July 2025 or after - No refund

English for Medics International Summer Programme

The English for Medics International Summer Programme is ideal for medical students and health professionals who want to improve their English for use in a hospital or medical setting. The course has been running for over seventeen years and was initially devised with the support of a University of Leicester alumnus who is now a doctor in Japan.

More information on this programme and apply for the programme through this link:

<https://le.ac.uk/cite/eltu/short-courses/summer/study/medics>

Aims

The main aims of the course are to develop participants' ability to communicate when using English for medical purposes and to provide them with opportunities to find out about the health system and medical practice in the UK. We focus on all four language skills – speaking, listening, reading and writing but the main emphasis will be on improving spoken English. An important aspect of the course is to learn to communicate in an appropriate way. When health professionals communicate with patients, they are expected to have a good 'bedside manner'.

Why join the English for Medics International Summer Programme?

- Improve your English skills specifically for use in a medical environment
- Learn about health issues in the UK and meet British medical professionals in lectures and academic visits
- Develop general English language skills for everyday communication
- Maximum class size of 16 students
- Up to 21 hours of face-to-face taught classes per week on the University of Leicester campus. Classes generally take place between 9.30am-11.00am, 11.30am-1.00pm and 2.00pm-4.00pm
- Enhance your research and study skills
- Find out what it's like to study at a British university
- Meet other international medical students

Course description

This intensive course primarily focuses on language used in medical contexts. Participants will be provided with opportunities to use new medical vocabulary and structures in different contexts such as with a patient or consulting with fellow health professionals.

The strands of the course are:

- Medical research project, culminating in the presentation of an academic poster at a research exhibition
- Patient consultation, culminating in an assessed consultation
- Guest lectures and seminars from healthcare professionals
- Classes exploring contemporary UK health issues

As an indication, some of the topics covered in the healthcare lectures and seminars have previously included:

- Genetics
- Perspectives from a general practitioner (GP)
- Perspectives from an emergency doctor
- Perspectives from a local medical student
- Palliative care
- Introduction to the National Health Service (history, structure, challenges, future)
- Midwifery
- Physiotherapy
- Molecular and cell biology (developments in diabetes research)
- International medical education approaches

Key facts

Dates for summer 2025

- Course dates: Monday 4 August - Friday 22 August 2025 (accommodation available from Saturday 2 August - Saturday 23 August 2025). Accommodation for additional nights may be booked at a cost of £30 per night
- Application deadline: Sunday 22 June 2025
- Acceptance and payment deadline: Sunday 29 June 2025
- Registration deadline: Sunday 6 July 2025
- Please note: to ensure courses are allocated in a timely and fair fashion, once an offer letter has been issued, we require you to accept or decline within 21 calendar days

Entry requirements

- Participants are expected to have a minimum English level of IELTS 4.5 or equivalent. We will accept a range of test results, including:
 - CASEC
 - CET4/CET6
 - EIKEN
 - GTEC
 - OET
 - TOEFL
 - TOEIC
- Please upload your English test evidence in your online application
- We may be able to test your English
- Participants must be aged 18 or over
- Participants must be students or professionals in a medical or healthcare field

Please email us at summer@le.ac.uk if you have any questions.

Expectations on the course

- Show willingness to engage with tutors and students during class
- Attend all sessions on the timetable
- Be open and kind to students from all backgrounds

Accommodation

- Accommodation will be in self-catered accommodation within walking distance of the campus and the city centre
- Participants will be housed in a single study bedroom with ensuite bathroom and will share kitchen facilities. All bills and Wi-Fi access are included. Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided

Cost

- £2,300 per student
- £2,200 for students from a University of Leicester partner

Payment is required in full to accept a place on the course.

What's included

- Medical and academic English classes
- Lectures on healthcare topics from specialists
- Two day trips to places of interest such as London and Oxford
- Three social events, including a welcome dinner and farewell party
- All study materials
- Self-catered student accommodation – single bedroom with ensuite bathroom and shared kitchen. Bedding and kitchen equipment provided

- Registration giving access to University of Leicester facilities, including the award-winning David Wilson library
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- Closing ceremony with prize giving
- Applicants should be aware that trips and socials will include unsupervised time not accompanied by members of staff

What's not included

- Airport transfers
- Meals and beverages, unless specified in the timetable
- Towel and toiletries
- Visa costs
- Medical and travel insurance
- Access to the university gyms. Short term membership can be purchased at a cost of £10 per week

Cancellation/refund policy after acceptance of offer

- Up to 6 July 2025 - Full refund
- 7 July - 20 July 2025 - Half refund
- 21 July 2025 or after - No refund

Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme

The Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme is aimed at students of all disciplines who wish to experience a taste of studying at a British university whilst learning about life in the UK and improving their English and academic skills.

Aims

The main aims of the course are to introduce participants to study in a British university context while giving a chance to discover aspects of British life through a programme of activities. English classes aim to develop all four language skills – speaking, listening, reading and writing but the main emphasis will be on improving spoken English.

Why join the Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme?

- Find out what it is like to live and study at a renowned British university
- Improve your English ability in an academic and friendly environment
- Up to 15 hours of face-to-face taught classes per week on the University of Leicester campus. Classes generally take place between 9.30am-11.00am, 11.30am-1.00pm. Afternoon activities take place between 2.00pm-4.00pm
- Have fun on trips and social activities discovering more about life in Britain, including history, film, sports and food

- Maximum group size of 16, allowing you to learn through interaction with the tutor and students
- Develop academic skills in preparation for future study abroad
- Experience living in a vibrant and student friendly city situated in the heart of England
- Make friends with other students from around the world

Course contents

- A course welcome and induction programme
- Daily English classes, focusing on both general and academic English, with particular emphasis on speaking and listening skills
- A varied activity programme giving an introduction to different aspects of British life, such as history, cuisine, sport, film, museums and shopping
- A basic research project leading to a poster presentation
- Day trips to places of interest such as London and Oxford
- Evening social activities with students from other international summer programmes including a welcome meal and farewell party
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- A closing ceremony with prize giving

What is the difference between Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme and English for Humanities International Summer Programme?

The English for Humanities International Summer Programme requires a higher English level (IELTS 5.0 and above) and contains more academic content. It is most suitable for those who wish to develop an established interest in the humanities, in areas such as British literature and history.

The Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme aims to offer a general introduction to British life and culture. Although there are clear academic themes within the course, there is more of focus on activities outside the classroom than with the English for Humanities International Summer Programme. It requires a lower IELTS level of 3.5 - 5.0.

Key facts

Dates for summer 2025

- Course dates: Monday 4 August to Friday 22 August 2025 (accommodation available from Saturday 2 August to Saturday 23 August 2025). Accommodation for additional nights may be booked at a cost of £30 per night.
- Application deadline: Sunday 22 June 2025
- Acceptance and payment deadline: Sunday 29 June 2025
- Registration deadline: Sunday 6 July 2025

- Please note: to ensure courses are allocated in a timely and fair fashion, once an offer letter has been issued, we require you to accept or decline within 21 calendar days.

Entry requirements

- Participants are expected to have a minimum English level of IELTS 3.5 or equivalent. The highest English level for this programme is IELTS 5.0 or equivalent. If you have IELTS 5.0 or above you may also like to look at English for Humanities.
- We will accept a range of test results, including:
 - CASEC
 - CET4/CET6
 - EIKEN
 - GTEC
 - TOEFL
 - TOEIC
- Please upload evidence of your English test on your online application
- We may be able to test your English
- Participants must be aged 18 or over

Please email us at summer@le.ac.uk if you have any questions.

Expectations on the course

- Show willingness to engage with tutors and students during class
- Attend all sessions on the timetable
- Be open and kind to students from other backgrounds

Accommodation

- Accommodation will be in self-catered accommodation within walking distance of the campus and the city centre
- Participants will be housed in a single study bedroom with ensuite bathroom and will share kitchen facilities. All bills and Wi-Fi access are included. Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided

Cost

- £2,300
- £2,200 for students from a University of Leicester partner

Payment is required in full to accept a place on the course.

For 2025, there is one scholarship available for a student from a University of Leicester partner institution. Learn more about the International Summer Programme scholarship 2025.

What's included

- Tuition fees for all classes

- Self-catered ensuite accommodation
- All excursions and social events
- All study materials
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- International Summer Programme T-shirt
- Closing ceremony with prize giving
- Access to University of Leicester facilities including the award-winning David Wilson Library
- Applicants should be aware that trips and socials will include unsupervised time not accompanied by members of staff

What's not included

- Airport transfers
- Meals and beverages, unless specified in the timetable
- Towel and toiletries
- Visa costs
- Medical and travel insurance
- Access to the university gyms. Short term membership can be purchased at a cost of £10 a week

Refund/cancellation policy

- Up to 6 July 2025 - Full refund
- 7 July to 20 July 2025 - Half refund
- 21 July 2025 or after - No refund

UNIVERSITY OF LEICESTER

www.le.ac.uk/eltu

2025 | 3 WEEK PROGRAMME

English for Humanities International Summer Programme

4 - 22 August 2025

Improve your academic and general English whilst learning about British theatre, literature and history, with a particular focus on Shakespeare

Why join English for Humanities?

- Improve your English skills in an academic and friendly environment
- Discover more about British culture, featuring films, literature, history and museums
- Develop general English language skills for everyday communication
- Make friends with other students from around the world
- Learn through interaction with teachers and students in a maximum group size of 16
- Enhance your research and academic skills through a small-scale research project and poster presentation
- Add international study experience to your CV
- Experience living in a vibrant and student-friendly city situated in the heart of England

Key Facts

- Course dates: Monday 4 - Friday 22 August 2025
- Accommodation available from Saturday 2 - Saturday 23 August 2025
- Language entry requirement: IELTS 5.0 or equivalent eg. TOEIC, TOEFL
- Fee for University of Leicester partner organisation students: £2,200
- Independent applicants: £2,300

What's included?

- A course welcome and induction programme
- Daily English classes, focusing on both general and academic English with particular emphasis on speaking and listening skills
- Up to 17 hours of face-to-face taught classes per week on the University of Leicester campus
- A mixture of seminars and lectures on British culture, focusing on film studies, museum studies and English literature
- Three day trips to places of interest such as London, Oxford and Stratford-upon-Avon
- Evening social activities with students from other international summer programmes including a welcome meal and farewell party
- All study materials
- Access to University of Leicester facilities, including the award-winning David Wilson Library
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- Closing ceremony with prize giving
- Self-catered student accommodation – ensuite bedroom with shared kitchen
- Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided

For more information contact:
summer@le.ac.uk

UNIVERSITY OF LEICESTER

www.le.ac.uk/eltu

2025 | 3 WEEK PROGRAMME

English for Medics International Summer Programme

4 - 22 August 2025

An ideal course for medical students and health professionals who want to improve their English for use in a hospital or medical setting

Why join English for Medics?

- Broaden your medical knowledge and learn about the UK health system through guest lectures from British medical professionals and leading academics
- Improve your medical communication through a series of patient consultation classes
- Develop general English language skills for everyday communication
- Enhance your research and academic skills through a small-scale medical research project
- Find out what it's like to study at the University of Leicester
- Discover British culture on trips and social events

Key facts

Course dates: Monday 4 - Friday 22
August 2025

Accommodation available from
Saturday 2 - Saturday 23 August 2025

Language entry requirement:
IELTS 4.5+ or equivalent

Fee for students from a University of Leicester partner organisation: £2,200

What's included?

- Medical and academic English classes
- Lectures on healthcare topics from specialists
- Visit to a local medical facility
- Two day trips: to London and to Oxford
- A welcome dinner, evening social activity, and farewell party
- All study materials
- Self-catered student accommodation – ensuite bedroom with shared kitchen
- Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided
- Access to University of Leicester facilities, including the award-winning David Wilson Library
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- Closing ceremony with prize giving

For more information contact:
e: summer@le.ac.uk

UNIVERSITY OF
LEICESTER

www.le.ac.uk/eltu

2025 | 3 WEEK PROGRAMME

Leicester Discovery International Summer Programme

4 - 22 August 2025

Improve your English language skills and discover British culture through a programme of classes, activities and trips. Open to students of all university majors.

Why join the Leicester Discovery Programme?

- Improve your English ability in an academic and friendly environment
- Have fun on a varied activity programme discovering more about life in Britain, including history, film, sports and food
- Develop general English language skills for everyday communication and academic skills in preparation for future study abroad
- Make friends with other students from around the world
- Learn through interaction with the tutor and students in a maximum group size of 16
- Enhance your research and academic skills through a small-scale research project and poster presentation
- Add international study experience to your CV
- Experience living in a vibrant and student-friendly city situated in the heart of England

Key Facts

- Course dates: Monday 4 - Friday 22 August 2025
- Accommodation available from Saturday 2 - Saturday 23 August 2025
- Language entry requirement: IELTS 3.5 or equivalent eg. TOEIC, TOEFL
- Fee for University of Leicester partner organisation students: £2,200, independent applicants: £2,300

What's included?

- A course welcome and induction programme
- Daily English classes, focusing on both general and academic English, with particular emphasis on speaking and listening skills
- Up to 15 hours of face-to-face taught classes per week on the University of Leicester campus.
- Three day trips to places of interest such as London, Oxford and Stratford-upon-Avon
- Evening social activities with students from other international summer programmes including a welcome meal and farewell party
- All study materials
- Access to University of Leicester facilities, including the award-winning David Wilson Library
- A statement of completion and written feedback
- A closing ceremony with prize giving
- Self-catered student accommodation – ensuite bedroom with shared kitchen
- Bedding and kitchen equipment are provided