Dear student,

You are right at the beginning of your Master’s programme. We would like to support you to make this journey as smooth as possible. This booklet offers a summary of the most important information. It also contains an overview of important contact people and services.

Have fun and good luck with your studies!

Faculty of Social Sciences
Registering for courses and exam resits

In order to take classes, you need to register through Osiris. Once you register for a course, you will automatically be registered for the initial exam sitting. However, you will need to register for an exam resit yourself. Do you decide not to take an exam or resit? Please deregister from the exam in Osiris. You can access Osiris and your personal timetable through the student portal.

portal.ru.nl
Re-registration for a Master’s programme
If you are enrolled in a two-year Master’s programme, please remember to reregister at the university via Studielink after the first year.
www.Studielink.nl

Honours Academy for Master’s students
Enhance your academic and professional career by joining the Honours Programme for Master’s students.

Student portal:
 everything in one place

The student portal contains all the essentials pertinent to your situation. It is your own responsibility to stay well informed! The portal (portal.ru.nl) includes:

Brightspace
Brightspace is the RU e-learning platform and contains all your course information.

Osiris
In Osiris you register for courses and exam resits and view your study programme and grades.

Programme information
The portal contains all the information about your programme.

Timetable/prospectus
Consult your timetable and curriculum.

Studentmail
Communicate with lecturers and receive news from your university.
Internet
For all questions about the internet you can consult the counter at the university library.

Student app “Radboud student”
You can view your grades in Osiris, your timetable and your academic progress. You can download the app from the App Store.

Student Information Point (STIP)
The STIP serves as the student administration for the Faculty of Social Sciences. You can contact the STIP for questions regarding course and exam registration, special exam regulations and for applying for Master’s diplomas.

Information counter:

Ordering readers
You can order readers via: socialewetenschappen.ru-bestel.nl.
Note: This account is not linked to your RU-account and RU-password.

Study and student counselling
Are you experiencing personal or motivational problems, or have special circumstances arisen, like illness, dyslexia or sports, that are affecting your studies? If so, please contact your student advisor. Your student advisor is also available to help you with other question related to your studies.

Making an appointment
You can make an appointment on the student portal and STIP website. The student advisors work closely with the central student counselling department. You can also go here to visit the student psychologist and to take courses on personal development and study skills.
www.ru.nl/socialsciences/stip
Know your rights and responsibilities!
Every programme has its own Education and Examination Regulations (EER). These regulations will inform you of your rights as a student, but also the responsibilities you have. You should take some time to read through your programme’s EER, which you can find on the student portal under Regulations. portal.ru.nl

How will we communicate with you?
The university communicates with students digitally through the student portal, Brightspace and your RU e-mail account. It will also send mail to the address you have listed in Studielink, so it’s important to ensure this home address is correct.
Examining Board
The Examining Board ensures that diplomas are awarded based on a responsible and fair assessment of the knowledge and skills that the programme sets out to teach. The EER serves as the foundation for the Examining Board’s activities. The Examining Board can help you with a request for exemptions or replacement courses, among other things.

Do you have a complaint or conflict?
In the case of complaints or conflicts, it is always best to first try to resolve the situation with the individual or people involved. If that fails, you can file your complaint with the Central Complaint Office.
www.ru.nl/currentstudents
Undesirable behaviour?
You should get in touch with a Confidential Advisor:

Marieke van der Burgh
(m.vanderburgh@ru.nl) and
Alex Buiks (a.buiks@ru.nl), both accessible via (024) - (36) 1 22 28
(if no answer (024) - (36) 11040).

Getting involved
As a student, there are various ways for you to participate in the university’s decision-making process. Participational bodies exist at every level of the university. For example, we have a University Student Council (USR) and a Faculty Student Council (FSR). The Programme Committee (OLC) will be your key point of contact. Do you have suggestions or questions about your programme? Get in touch with your programme’s OLC. You can find the contact information on the portal. Do you want more information about other participational bodies or wish to stay up-to-date on their activities?
