The Future of Developmental Neuroscience
From Normal Development to Psychopathology
December 12, 2018

09:00-10:00 Welcome and registration

Session 1

10:00-10:15 Introduction, Prof. Jan Buitelaar
10:15-10:45 Stress in early life: links with children’s physical and psychological development, Prof. Carolina de Weerth
10:45-11:15 Neuroimaging of the emergence of cognition and its clinical applications, Prof. Rhodri Cusack
11:15-11:45 Coffee/Tea break
11:45-12:15 Modeling the dynamics of neurocognitive development, Dr Rogier Kievit
12:15-12:45 Individualised developmental trajectories of brain connectivity, Dr Myrthe Faber
12:45-13:15 Panel discussion
13:15-14:15 Lunch break

Session 2

14:15-14:45 An interdisciplinary approach to the diagnosis and treatment of ADHD across the lifespan, Dr Nanda Lambregts-Rommelse
14:45-15:15 The impact of severe institutional deprivation in childhood on adult brain structure and function, Dr Graeme Fairchild
15:15-15:45 Structural brain development and psychopathology in adolescence, Dr Marieke Bos
15:45-16:15 Panel discussion
16:15-16:30 Closing Comments, Prof. Guillén Fernández

Location: Red Room, Trigon Building, route 200, Kapittelweg 29, 6525 EN Nijmegen

REGISTRATION REQUIRED