Searching for accommodation in Nijmegen

There are several ways to find accommodation in Nijmegen. What is the most suitable way depends on the length of your stay. This list provides you with some helpful addresses in search for accommodation (room/apartment/house). Good luck!

During your search, be careful not to transfer large amounts of money before signing a contract. Other tips to avoid being scammed can be found here.

Period of stay: less than one month
When your stay in Nijmegen will be less than one month, it is best to book a hotel, guesthouse or B&B. Global Staff Services is not able to assist you in finding accommodation for this period of stay. Some of the options below offer special tariffs for guests who stay with them for several weeks.

Searching for accommodation in Nijmegen

Period of stay: one month – one year
When your period of stay is at least one month, but no more than a year, you can use the options below to find housing. In case you will arrive soon, and need housing urgently for the first month, you can also check the options under 'Period of stay: less than one month' for short-stay options.

Request help from Global Staff Services of Radboud University
Global Staff Services can assist in finding housing when you stay for more than a month. Please note that in case you will stay in Nijmegen for less than three months, it will be difficult for Global Staff Services to help, as most available accommodation is for at least three months.

If you are interested in help from Global Staff Services, please send an email to staffsupport@dpo.ru.nl. You will receive a reply that you need to forward to your supervisor or the secretariat of your department. They are requested to provide Global Staff Services with some additional information.

After Global Staff Services has received the additional information from your supervisor/department, you will receive an email with the request to fill out an online form. Once you have filled out this form and submitted it, the Global Staff Services will do its best to help you find accommodation. Most of the accommodation that can be offered is furnished.

Please note Global Staff Services cannot guarantee it can help. As it mediates between international guests, PhD-candidates and employees and house owners on the private market, it is entirely dependent on the availability on the market.
