Using copyright material in your teaching

Would you like to use copyright material in your teaching?

Yes →

Can you link to it?

Yes →

Include a proxy link to the publication in your material.

Can you link to it? No ↓

Is the work Open Access available or does it have an open licence, like Creative Commons?

Yes → Take over the work.

Is the work Open Access available or does it have an open licence, like Creative Commons? No ↓

Can you comply with the Easy Access scheme?

- Max. 40 pages and no more than 20% of the work.
- No maximum for images. However, there are two conditions: max. 10 works from the same creator and max. 25 images from the same work.

Yes →

Take-over is permitted.
Any costs have been covered by the Easy Access scheme.

Can you comply with the Easy Access scheme? No ↓

If you still wish to make a copy, please request permission via the faculty from Stichting UvO or the publisher.
They charge a fee per page per course participant.

Principles

- Always cite the source.
- Preferably include a hyperlink to the publication.
- Open Access content is always welcome.

Contact
Please contact our colleagues at the Copyright Information Point for assistance and advice.

Copyright@ubn.ru.nl

More information?

edu.nl/updvx

September 2026
Copyright Information Point